Making Great Communities Happen

The Planning Foundation of APA

The Planning Foundation of APA pulls together in one endowment funding for philanthropic activities that the American Planning Association has supported for years—scholarships and community equity programs, for example—and new initiatives like special research projects and creative ways to “tell the planning story” to an expanded audience. It is an independent 501(c)(3) subsidiary of APA with its own seven-member governing board.

Contributions designated for the “Planning Assistance Team Fund” will be used exclusively for the Planning Assistance Team initiative, a part of APA’s Community Assistance Program. By pairing expert urban planning professionals from around the country with citizen planners from local communities, the PAT initiative seeks to foster community education, engagement, and empowerment.

The “Katrina Relief Fund” will be used to support the planning efforts undertaken by APA and our chapters in Louisiana and Mississippi to help communities recover from the devastation of Hurricane Katrina.

The Judith McManus Price Scholarship Fund was established to encourage women and minorities to enter the field of planning and pursue careers as practicing planners in the public sector.

All contributions are fully tax-deductible.

To contribute to the Planning Foundation, donate online at www.planning.org/foundation or print this page, fill out the form that appears below, and return it, with your contribution, to:
