NPC19 Program

With so many educational sessions, mobile workshops, and events to choose from, your 2019 National Planning Conference Schedule won’t have a dull moment. Don’t forget to download the APA NPC19 app for easy access to your schedule onsite or bring this print out with you for a physical copy.

NPC19: 2019 National Planning Conference

Wednesday, April 10

Wednesday, April 10 | 3 p.m.

Foundation Board Meeting

April 10, 3 p.m. to 6 p.m.
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Date</th>
<th>Time</th>
<th>Event</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Wednesday, Apr 10</td>
<td>7 p.m.</td>
<td>Foundation Dinner (Invitation Only)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Thursday, Apr 11</td>
<td>9:30 a.m.</td>
<td>AICP Commission Meeting (with lunch)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Thursday, Apr 11</td>
<td>12:30 p.m.</td>
<td>Leadership Registration</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Thursday, Apr 11</td>
<td>1 p.m.</td>
<td>Executive Committee Meeting (Invitation Only - Board/Commission/CPC/DC/SRC)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Thursday, Apr 11</td>
<td>2:15 p.m.</td>
<td>Leadership Plenary/Component Group Leader's Updates - Invitation Only</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Time</td>
<td>Event</td>
<td>Details</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>----------</td>
<td>----------------------------------------------------------------------</td>
<td>------------------------------------------------------------------------</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Thursday, April 11</td>
<td>5 p.m.</td>
<td>APA Leadership Meet and Greet / Regional Reception - Invitation Only</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Thursday, April 11</td>
<td>5:30 p.m.</td>
<td>Data Jam Preview Happy Hour: Get SF Transit Moving!</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Thursday, April 11</td>
<td>6 p.m.</td>
<td>Board / Commission Dinner (Invitation Only)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Friday, April 12</td>
<td>8 a.m.</td>
<td>CPC Committee Meetings</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>DC Welcome and Meetings: Informal Discussions (light breakfast provided)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>SRC Executive Committee Meeting (light breakfast provided)</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Friday, April 12 | 9:15 a.m.

National Planning Conference > Program >

CPC Business Meeting

April 12, 9:15 a.m. to 11:45 a.m.

Friday, April 12 | 9:45 a.m.

National Planning Conference > Program >

DC Business Meeting

April 12, 9:45 a.m. to 12:15 p.m.

Friday, April 12 | 10:30 a.m.

National Planning Conference > Program >

SRC Committee Meetings

April 12, 10:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m.

Friday, April 12 | 12:30 p.m.

National Planning Conference > Program >

DC Meetings: Focused Lunch Discussion

April 12, 12:30 p.m. to 1:45 p.m.

National Planning Conference > Program >

Board of Directors Business Meeting (lunch provided)

April 12, 12:30 p.m. to 4 p.m.

Friday, April 12 | 1 p.m.

National Planning Conference > Program >

Speaker Ready Room

April 12, 1 p.m. to 5 p.m.
Friday, April 12 | 2 p.m.
National Planning Conference > Program

CPC Exchange
April 12, 2 p.m. to 3:15 p.m.

Friday, April 12 | 3:30 p.m.
National Planning Conference > Program

Chapter Administration Discussion
April 12, 3:30 p.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Friday, April 12 | 5 p.m.
National Planning Conference > Program

Foundation Reception (Invitation Only)
April 12, 5 p.m. to 6:30 p.m.

Friday, April 12 | 6:30 p.m.
National Planning Conference > Program

Giants Baseball Game
They're one of the most storied franchises in baseball. They play in one of the best ballparks in the nation. And they have one of the most loyal and vocal fan bases in the league. They're the San Francisco Giants, and they're back for another season of big hits, stunning plays, and hopefully some additional hardware. Come see the historic Giants play at AT&T Park with your APA friends before the
April 12, 6:30 p.m. to 10 p.m.
Ticket Required
Cost: $22.50

Saturday, April 13

Saturday, April 13 | 7:30 a.m.
National Planning Conference > Program

ENRE Business Meeting
April 13, 7:30 a.m. to 8:30 a.m.
Speaker Ready Room
April 13, 7:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Saturday, April 13 | 8:30 a.m.

National Planning Conference > Program > NPC196002

Opening Keynote Session
Join your colleagues for NPC19’s opening session, featuring Vijay Gupta, violinist and social justice advocate.
April 13, 8:30 a.m. to 10 a.m.
Vijay Gupta

Saturday, April 13 | 10 a.m.

National Planning Conference > Program > NPC191121

Networking Break
April 13, 10 a.m. to 10:45 a.m.

National Planning Conference > Program > NPC195022

Career Services: Professional Headshots
Dress for the job you want and smile for the camera. A professional photographer will do the rest! First come, first served.
April 13, 10 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

National Planning Conference > Program > NPC195019

Career Services: Resume Clinic
In partnership with Sequence Staffing, APA is offering our annual Resume Clinic in the Career Zone. APA members can get one-on-one feedback, insights, and tips from fellow members who have volunteered their expertise, private- and public-sector hiring managers, AICP Fellows, APA division leaders, and many others. Sequence Staffing, a premier executive search and recruitment firm, is committed.
April 13, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

National Planning Conference > Program > NPC191105

Exhibit Hall Open
April 13, 10 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.
Saturday, April 13 | 10:30 a.m.

GIS Workshop: 4/13 @ 10:30 AM - Using Story Maps to Tell the Story of Your Community

In this hands-on workshop, with no programming and no GIS knowledge, you'll use ready-made templates to tell a story about the assets of your community on the web to convey the message that you want and to foster additional discussion.

April 13, 10:30 a.m. to 11:45 a.m.
Ticket Required
Cost: $50.00
Keith Cooke

PDO Exchange

April 13, 10:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

Data Jam Interactive Discussions: Get SF Transit Moving!

Join the NPC19 Data Jam’s opening conversations with other planners, transit advocates, and civic tech thinkers at the Code for America headquarters. Connect with the civic tech community through collaborative, interactive, round-table discussions focusing on transportation issues in the Bay Area. Learn about the “civic hacking” community and how similar events could be organized in your own community.

April 13, 10:30 a.m. to 12:45 p.m.
Ticket Required
Cost: $0.00

Orientation Tour - Sat. 10:30 AM

San Francisco is not the city you thought you knew! See the planning issues the City by the Bay has to grapple with as it balances rapid growth with livability/affordability. A must-see for first-timers and return visitors.

April 13, 10:30 a.m. to 2 p.m.
Ticket Required
Cost: $40.00
Jack London Square's Urban Wine Trail

Oakland's urban wineries are housed in renovated warehouse spaces, but the wine quality is second to none. The Urban Wine Trail is walkable, houses a number of wineries and is in the waterfront/produce historical district.

April 13, 10:30 a.m. to 3:45 p.m.
Ticket Required
Cost: $95.00

AICP Community Planning Workshop

The Community Planning Workshop is an opportunity to get involved in an active planning project during the conference. This year's workshop will focus on key organizational strategies necessary to establish, finance, and sustain a community benefits district in one of the last urban-infill neighborhoods in Downtown Oakland. Located in the heart of Oakland Chinatown, community stakeholders aim to p

April 13, 10:30 a.m. to 5 p.m.
Ticket Required
Cost: $25.00
Ryan Scherzinger, AICP

Saturday, April 13 | 10:45 a.m.

Autism Planning and Design Guidelines 1.0

Autism's increasing prevalence calls for planners to plan and design the public realm to improve the quality of life for people with autism. Find out about planning and design standards that create places where people with autism can thrive. This course is approved to offer 1.25 LU|HSW (AIA). This course is approved to offer 1.25 PDH (ASLA).

April 13, 10:45 a.m. to noon
Richard Stein, AICP | Galyna Korniyenko | Joanne Shelly, AICP | Kyle Ezell, AICP CUD

Bay Area Solutions to National Problems

San Francisco Bay Area communities, ripe with the challenges planners face nationwide, have found new opportunities to innovate. Take a virtual trip around the Bay and learn about regional planning strategies, adapting to the shared economy, and planning for diversity.

April 13, 10:45 a.m. to noon
Lisa Wise, AICP | Jennifer Daugherty, AICP | Stefan Pellegrini, AICP | Arti Harchekar, AICP
Building Careers in Equity and Planning

Hear a frank conversation about gender, race and equity in planning. Listen as planners in the private sector, government affairs, philanthropy and academia share tips for shaping a planning career that addresses LGBTQ issues, racial equity, international, and immigrant justice.

April 13, 10:45 a.m. to noon
Tilly Chang | Christina Delius | Heather Smith

Create Adaptive Transportation Policy

Shared, autonomous, convenient. Mobility companies are promising new technologies with these traits. How do communities create policy that meets their goals and adapts to this changing environment? Learn how San Francisco did by using something these companies espouse: data.

April 13, 10:45 a.m. to noon
Viktoriya Wise | Carli Paine | Annick Beaudet, AICP | Wade Wietgrefe, AICP

Fast, Funny, and Passionate 1

This curated selection of nine bite-size presentations aims to entertain and inform you. They capture the flavor of today's planning from a variety of perspectives. This grouping is ideal for those interested in a mix of planning issues, from new mobility, to community design, to freight planning, to big data, and more.

April 13, 10:45 a.m. to noon
Laura Schewel | Amy Elmore | Justin Goodwin, AICP | James Castaneda, AICP | Erkin Ozberk, AICP | Arin Blair, AICP | James Barnes, AICP CEP | Tom Visee, AICP | Daniel Simons

How Food Shapes Our Cities

Without a reliable food supply, even the most advanced city would collapse. Climate change and population growth are making our cities and the agricultural systems that support them more vulnerable than ever. Explore how urban agriculture is shifting this trajectory. This course is approved to offer 1.25 PDH|HSW (ASLA).

April 13, 10:45 a.m. to noon
Henry Gordon-Smith | Mario Cambardella
Inclusive Housing Successes; Inclusive Community Aspirations

Communities around the country struggle to maintain and create housing that is affordable and appealing for households across the income spectrum. Examine results from market-driven strategies that are creating mixed-income housing in the Bay Area, Detroit, and the Northeast.

April 13, 10:45 a.m. to noon
Amit Price Patel, AICP  |  Ben Carlson

Latina/o Migration & Informality-Lessons for Planners

In session, planners will learn about the informal economy within Latina/o communities, e.g., street vending and rural ranching informal economy. Planners will learn strategies to engage informal Latina/o entrepreneurs to further equity and justice in our cities and rural towns.

April 13, 10:45 a.m. to noon
Gerardo Sandoval  |  Alvaro Huerta

New Methods for Reforming Bureaucracy

Reforming the rules of a bureaucracy can seem like an impossible task but when done right, reform can have massive impact. Learn about new methods for bureaucratic reform, utilizing big data and smart policy.

April 13, 10:45 a.m. to noon
Henry Pontarelli  |  Linda McIntyre, AICP  |  Olivia Jovine  |  Veronica Chuah, AICP

Off-port Land Use Environmental Justice Impacts

The Port of Los Angeles has massive health, environmental justice, and economic impacts on neighboring San Pedro and Wilmington. Hear from the researcher, an academic, a board member, and a community health organizer about the recent land-use study of off-port impacts.

April 13, 10:45 a.m. to noon
Sylvia Betancourt  |  Jesse Marquez  |  David Sloane  |  Beth Altshuler
Politics and Power: Planners Influencing Change

We are the leaders we have been waiting for. Find out how these passionate planners got political and became influential changemakers who ran for office, councils, and commissions, brought in a planner’s perspective, and made huge impacts to their communities.

April 13, 10:45 a.m. to noon
Lilly Shoup, AICP | Lisa Fisher | Jenny Brekhus, AICP | Debra March

Preserving Affordable Housing Through Big Data

Explore how big data and machine learning streamline the preservation of affordable housing! This session will present innovative methods to improve coordination between funders and properties in need of preservation using new open-source tools on publicly available databases.

April 13, 10:45 a.m. to noon
Anthony Orlando | Brian An

San Francisco Urban Transformations

San Francisco is witnessing an urban renaissance of epic proportion. Leaders from the planning, economic development, urban advocacy and architecture sectors engage in a conversation on San Francisco’s transformation and reflect on the city’s past, present and future. This course is approved to offer 1.25 LUs (AIA).

April 13, 10:45 a.m. to noon
Leo Chow | Nadia Sesay | John Rahaim | Allison Albericci, AICP | Kristen Wang | Mark Schwettmann

The ‘P’ in Planning is CAPITAL

Learn about specific capital planning approaches used by the city of New York, the county of Los Angeles, and the District of Columbia to achieve planning objectives, and about the vital role of capital investments in community revitalization.

April 13, 10:45 a.m. to noon
Sarah Goldwyn | Kelly Quinn | Vikram Viswanathan | Rogelio Flores, AICP
Vision Zero: Suburban Challenges, Suburban Solutions

Montgomery County, Maryland, is paving the way as the first suburban jurisdiction to adopt Vision Zero, a policy to eliminate traffic-related fatalities and severe injuries. Think this is ambitious? Learn how this policy is informing plans for safer suburban streets.

April 13, 10:45 a.m. to noon
Elizabeth Gordon | David Anspacher | Andrew Tsai | Jessica McVary, AICP

Zoning Reforms to Boost ADU Development

Policy experts and practitioners present a novel proposal to facilitate garage to apartment conversions, share the highs and lows of municipal ADU program administration, and highlight the key tensions underlying efforts to reform ADU zoning.

April 13, 10:45 a.m. to noon
Donald Shoup, FAICP | Vinit Mukhiya | Marcelle Boudreaux, AICP | Vicki Vandegrift, AICP

Legal Issues with Short-Term Rentals

What authority do local governments have to regulate increasingly popular short-term rental services such as Airbnb? Policy and compliance professionals discuss effective regulations, legal challenges, and prosecutions affecting short-term rentals.

April 13, 10:45 a.m. to 12:15 p.m.
Christopher Smith | Teresa Ou | Daniel Bolin

Conducting a Cultural Landscape Assessment

This session aims to provide planners with a comprehensive overview of cultural landscapes as important places within our built environment, introduce a methodology for identifying and understanding a place's character-defining features, and develop treatment options that respect a place's historic character.

April 13, 10:45 a.m. to 5:45 p.m.
Ticket Required
Cost: $128.00
Gretchen Boyce | Laurie Matthews | Aaron Tuley, AICP
California’s First Form-based Codes: Hercules and Petaluma

This tour explores the built results of California’s first adopted form-based codes, the 400-acre Central Petaluma SmartCode, which stimulated urban revitalization in a historic downtown, and the Central Hercules Form-Based Code, which envisioned 700 acres of new walkable neighborhoods.

April 13, 10:45 a.m. to 7:45 p.m.
Ticket Required
Cost: $125.00
Lois Fisher

Saturday, April 13 | 11 a.m.

Orientation Tour - Sat. 11:00 AM

San Francisco is not the city you thought you knew! See the planning issues the City by the Bay has to grapple with as it balances rapid growth with livability/affordability. A must-see for first-timers and return visitors.

April 13, 11 a.m. to 2:30 p.m.
Ticket Required
Cost: $40.00

Mission District — Displacement and Stabilization

In the midst of the housing crisis in the San Francisco Bay Area, learn about stabilization efforts and successes to address displacement in the Mission District — one of the neighborhoods with the most evictions.

April 13, 11 a.m. to 3 p.m.
Ticket Required
Cost: $55.00
Claudia Flores  |  Diana Ponce De Leon

Career Services: Employer Connection Job Fair

Job seekers — discuss open positions with employers in small-group information sessions.

April 13, 11 a.m. to 5 p.m.
The Market Street Hub Mobile Workshop

City planners, developers, and environmental consultants lead a mobile workshop in the Market Street Hub Plan area (Market Street and South Van Ness Avenue) to discuss and explore this dynamic and rapidly changing part of San Francisco.

April 13, 11:30 a.m. to 3 p.m.
Ticket Required
Cost: $45.00
Eryn Brennan, AICP

San Francisco's Evolving Central Waterfront

Ten years after adoption, San Francisco's Central Waterfront Plan is reshaping the city's industrial core. Tour new infill projects, public spaces, emerging mega-projects at Pier 70 and Potrero Power Station, and the creative/industrial businesses that make this district unique.

April 13, 11:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.
Ticket Required
Cost: $80.00
Robin Abad Ocubillo | John Francis | Seung Yen Hong

Maintaining Tenderloin an Affordable Refuge

An affordable refuge for vulnerable populations, the Tenderloin recently became an attractive place to move given the city's affordability crisis. The city, community, and developers are working in the neighborhood, sometimes in support and sometimes in opposition, to balance priorities.

April 13, 11:45 a.m. to 4:45 p.m.
Ticket Required
Cost: $45.00
Andrea Nelson | Reanna Tong, AICP Candidate

New Urbanism Division Business Meeting

April 13, noon to 1 p.m.
Designing Downtown SF: Behind the Scenes

Led by the urban planners and architects behind the policies and design of downtown San Francisco, this indulging tour uncovers the secrets and rich history, plans and guidelines that literally shape the buildings and public spaces of downtown SF.

April 13, noon to 2 p.m.
Ticket Required
Cost: $35.00
Saki Mizuguchi, AICP | Kenichiro Suzuki

Saturday, April 13 | 12:15 p.m.

Tenderloin Neon: A to Z

Discover the Tenderloin through its historic neon signs and learn about the efforts to preserve, restore, and illuminate these glowing works of art. Guides include experts in typography, the history and culture of the Tenderloin, and San Francisco's neon collection.

April 13, 12:15 p.m. to 2:45 p.m.
Ticket Required
Cost: $45.00
Randall Ann Homan | Darcy Bender

Saturday, April 13 | 12:30 p.m.

Orientation Tour - Sat. 12:30 PM

San Francisco is not the city you thought you knew! See the planning issues the City by the Bay has to grapple with as it balances rapid growth with livability/affordability. A must-see for first-timers and return visitors.

April 13, 12:30 p.m. to 4 p.m.
Ticket Required
Cost: $40.00
Assessing Affirmative Fair Housing: North Texas

An unprecedented Dallas-led consortium of 21 Dallas-Fort Worth cities and housing authorities partnered with a university to respond to HUD's required Assessment of Fair Housing. What are the lessons and takeaways, especially after HUD suspended the AFFH rule’s mandated assessment?

April 13, 1 p.m. to 2:15 p.m.
Beverly Davis | Stephen Mattingly | flora brewer | Lorin Carter

Beyond Vulnerability: Innovative Adaptation Planning

Planning for climate adaptation is a moving target. With ever evolving data and methods, projects can get bogged down in analyses. Come hear how regional resilience planning initiatives in California and New Jersey are moving beyond assessments to promote action.

April 13, 1 p.m. to 2:15 p.m.
Nik Steinberg | Amanda Brown-Stevens | Kelly Pflicke, AICP

Big City Planning Directors on Autonomous Vehicles

Autonomous vehicles will begin to revolutionize mobility in communities across the country by 2020. Learn how the nation's largest cities are preparing for this transformative new technology.

April 13, 1 p.m. to 2:15 p.m.
Andres Seutsuk | Vincent Bertoni, AICP | David Dixon | Anita Laremont | Armando Carbonell, FAICP

Business Case for Planning Healthy Towns

Achieving future generations of healthy towns will require partnerships between public entities and the private sector. Case studies will be examined that explore UK and American approaches in leveraging public and private collaboration and resources to implement healthy town projects.

April 13, 1 p.m. to 2:15 p.m.
Eleanor Eaton | Kelly Porter, AICP
Capitol Campuses

Planning and design of capitol campuses demonstrate how state governments address issues of facilities, sustainability, workplace, placemaking, and parking in the context of capital cities and downtowns. A capitol campus in Richmond, Virginia provides an exemplary case study in undertaking revitalization. This course is approved to offer 1.25 PDH/HSW (ASLA).

April 13, 1 p.m. to 2:15 p.m.
Holly Law Eve | Yogesh Saoji, AICP

Cohesive Wildfire Strategies: A Big Tent

The National Cohesive Wildland Fire Strategy builds the first "big tent" for effective wildland fire planning at all levels of government. Ask our experts how planners, regulators, responders and NGO's can develop plans for fire adapted communities, resilience and recovery.

April 13, 1 p.m. to 2:15 p.m.
Bob Roper | Dave Driscoll | James Schwab, FAICP | Adrian Freund, FAICP

Creative Community Revitalization and Strategic Financing

Revitalization programs of all forms rely on three essential factors: engagement, financing, and applying the right tools. Listen and learn as varied perspectives weigh in on the strategy and gravity of microprojects as catalysts of revitalization in communities across the country.

April 13, 1 p.m. to 2:15 p.m.
Jim Miller | Robert Barber, FAICP | Sue Schwartz, FAICP | Erin Cigliano, AICP

Design-based Comprehensive Plans

Physical design of our built environment is one of the most dominant influences on quality of life. Comprehensive Plans always include goals and guidelines intended to influence development. Plans that are more visual are increasingly viewed as being more effective. This course is approved to offer 1.25 PDH (ASLA). This course is approved to offer 1.25 LU (AIA).

April 13, 1 p.m. to 2:15 p.m.
Rodger Lentz, AICP | Philip Walker, FAICP | Leigh Anne King, AICP | Roger Waldon, FAICP
Discovering FEMA's Flood Risk Products

Most communities are familiar with using flood maps to guide sound floodplain management decisions. FEMA has also developed a suite of ready-made products designed to inform mitigation actions. Learn about the user-friendly Flood Risk Products.

April 13, 1 p.m. to 2:15 p.m.
Bradley Dean | Christine Caggiano, AICP | Devon McGhee

Equity-driven Cultural Planning in Three Cities

Cultural planning can be an equitable planning approach that sustains community identity and cultures of place. Learn how Boston, Oakland, and Washington, D.C., have taken three different approaches to creating and implementing equity-driven cultural plans. Learn about how cultural planning can stimulate equitable, arts-centered revitalization that engages diverse demographics and shares power in

April 13, 1 p.m. to 2:15 p.m.
Kara Elliott-Ortega | Roberto Bedoya | Sakina Khan | Ryan Hand

GIS Workshop: 4/13 @ 1:00 PM -Empowering an Informed Public: Generating and Analyzing Genuine Citizen Engagement

In this hands-on workshop, we will examine the changes in expectations of citizens, evolving from traditional public notification to modern demands for information and engagement. You will learn how easy-to-use apps can create a genuine partnership between citizens and their planning department and empower planning professionals to produce buy-in for better, more sustainable plans. Laptops

April 13, 1 p.m. to 2:15 p.m.
Ticket Required
Cost: $50.00
Keith Cooke

Idealism in Professional Planning

Encounter frank discussion among planners at varying stages in their careers on the challenges of both maintaining and managing idealism in professional planning. Topics include the evolution of ideals, disillusionment, and the integrating of ideals into practice.

April 13, 1 p.m. to 2:15 p.m.
Cade Hobbick, AICP | Christopher Gomez, AICP | Catherine Chao | Sahra Mirbabaee
Industrial Areas in Transition

This panel brings together three examples of historically industrial areas that are transitioning away from industry entirely or are trying to find a balance between traditional, heavy manufacturing and newer uses such as small-scale manufacturing, innovation, or residential. This course is approved to offer 1.25 LUs (AIA).

April 13, 1 p.m. to 2:15 p.m.
Eleanor Gorski | Shani Leibowitz, AICP | Adam Lubinsky, AICP

Integrating Urban and Regional Sustainability Planning

The session describes and compares how different US and international planning organizations and initiatives integrate sustainable planning at regional and city levels, exploring if one level does or should set the agenda or context for the other.

April 13, 1 p.m. to 2:15 p.m.
Scott Edmondson, AICP | Vincent Riscica, AICP | Sharon Rooney, AICP | Bruce Stiftel, FAICP

NYC Rent-Regulation: 75-years

The housing affordability crisis is prompting many communities to (re)consider rent control. Government researchers will share insights from decades of rent regulation experience in New York. Planners interested in affordability will gain understanding of benefits and challenges of rent regulation.

April 13, 1 p.m. to 2:15 p.m.
Elyzabeth Gaumer | Caitlin Waickman | Daniel Goldstein

Parking and the City

Authors of chapters in the new book "Parking and the City" explain how parking reforms can produce major benefits for cities, the economy, and the environment. This course is approved to offer 1.25 PDH (ASLA). This course is approved to offer 1.25 LU (AIA).

April 13, 1 p.m. to 2:15 p.m.
Leah Bojo | Hank Willson | William Chapin | Elizabeth Deakin | Daniel Hess | Richard Willson, FAICP | Jay Primus | Daniel Chatman | Donald Shoup, FAICP
Tribal Planning 101: Power to Plan

How do legislative and planning-zoning regulations on Native lands differ? Attendees will hear educators and tribal and non-tribal planning practitioners' discuss historical and contemporary information on tribal government planning structures and help familiarize non-tribal planners with issues of Indian country.

April 13, 1 p.m. to 2:15 p.m.
Margo Hill | Michelle Wade, AICP | John Tovey, AICP | Sherwin Racehorse

Career Services: Planning Supervisors Group Discussion

Aimee Nassif, AICP, and Matt Brandmeyer, AICP, hosts of the six-part Planning Supervisor’s Playbook series available from APA Learn, welcome your questions in a small-group discussion in the Career Zone. Discuss the unique challenges, expectations, and situations faced by planners in supervisory roles. Join this discussion to share your supervisory issues and best practices. Help generate solution

April 13, 1 p.m. to 2:30 p.m.

Right-of-way Management: Small Cells to Scooters

Learn how to address emerging issues in public right-of-way management, including: small wireless facilities, federal preemption, the FCC's new rules, shared mobility services (scooters, car-sharing, etc.) and First Amendment challenges to regulation of panhandling, charitable solicitation, and signs.

April 13, 1 p.m. to 2:30 p.m.
Alan Weinstein | Gail Karish | Alicia Giudice | Brandon Bordenkircher | Isidro Jimenez | Daniel Bolin

BBQingWhileBlack: Planners' Role in Changing Communities

Poor and working-class communities of color are experiencing cultural clashes with new, wealthier residents as development returns to cities. How can planners respond to conflicts such as Oakland’s Lake Merritt BBQ incident using public space to address the dynamics of privilege?

April 13, 1 p.m. to 4 p.m.
Ticket Required
Cost: $75.00
Christy Leffall | Frank Wheeler, AICP
Bringing Back Broadway

Broadway was once a thriving hub of public life and commerce in Oakland, but fell into decline during the era of suburbanization. See how the Uptown redevelopment and Broadway Valdez District Specific Plan are bringing Broadway back to life.

April 13, 1 p.m. to 6 p.m.
Ticket Required
Cost: $40.00
Catherine Payne  |  Laura Kaminski, AICP

Bringing Burning Man Off-Playa

Burning Man has evolved beyond a single event to a social movement and an organization that fosters participatory art and civic engagement in urban contexts worldwide. Tour spectacular art, meet the artists, and visit the headquarters of this global phenomenon.

April 13, 1:15 p.m. to 5:15 p.m.
Ticket Required
Cost: $55.00
Beth Altshuler  |  Joanna Winter, AICP

Old Oakland: Reimagined Shopping Place

What is retail? What role does retail activity have in placemaking? What can owners, landlords and city government achieve working together? Visit eight successful retailers in historic Old Oakland in a tour for planners, property owners, developers, and economic developers.

April 13, 1:15 p.m. to 5:45 p.m.
Ticket Required
Cost: $30.00
Devan Reiff, AICP  |  Keira Williams

Meet the Editors & Meet the Authors

April 13, 1:30 p.m. to 2:30 p.m.
SF Urbanism, Urban Hiking, and Drinks!

See and hear about innovative changes around and along Market Street, San Francisco’s central hub. Discover some hidden gems, critical development sites, important and interesting historic structures, streetscape plans, and end with happy hour!

April 13, 1:30 p.m. to 5:30 p.m.
Ticket Required
Cost: $20.00
Jessica Viramontes | Kimberly Avila, AICP | Erin Efner

Chapter Administrators Meeting

April 13, 2 p.m. to 4 p.m.

Networking Break

April 13, 2:15 p.m. to 2:45 p.m.

Kayak the Bay Area Water Trail

Experience the Bay Area's newest regional trail, the Water Trail, while exploring the San Francisco Bay shoreline by kayak. This three-hour scenic tour offers lessons-learned planning and partnering to expand public access along this iconic shoreline.

April 13, 2:15 p.m. to 5:45 p.m.
Ticket Required
Cost: $119.00
Ben Botkin
Saturday, April 13 | 2:30 p.m.

National Planning Conference > Program >

APA Foundation

Learn more about the APA Foundation and its impact on the planning profession by assisting disaster stricken communities, creating the first peer-vetted planning research agenda, and diversifying the profession.

April 13, 2:30 p.m. to 2:45 p.m.

---

National Planning Conference > Program >

Career Services: Put Your Career on the Fast Track

Learn more about the AICP Candidate Pilot Program.

April 13, 2:30 p.m. to 3 p.m.

---

National Planning Conference > Program >

Fruitvale Station: Community Based TOD

This mobile workshop will allow attendees to experience firsthand the past, present and future of Fruitvale Station. The tour will help attendees better understand what was planned for the station and how the community banded together to make something unique.

April 13, 2:30 p.m. to 6 p.m.

Ticket Required

Cost: $30.00

Marc Lewis-Degrace, AICP | Chris Iglesias

---

National Planning Conference > Program >

Orientation Tour - Sat. 2:30 PM

San Francisco is not the city you thought you knew! See the planning issues the City by the Bay has to grapple with as it balances rapid growth with livability/affordability. A must-see for first-timers and return visitors.

April 13, 2:30 p.m. to 6 p.m.

Ticket Required

Cost: $40.00
Beginning with the Ending: Achievable Implementation

Successful plan implementation begins before the planning process starts, with clear achievable outcomes that drive the planning process. Learn how to jump-start implementation with lessons from urbanizing suburbs and historic central cities.

April 13, 2:45 p.m. to 4 p.m.
Wendy Moeller, FAICP | Tom Hester | Sara Copeland, AICP

Census 2020: Update, Issues, and Planners

Census 2020 is one year away. The session speakers will present an update (Timothy Olson, Associate Director of Field Operations), discuss issues (Marybel Batjer, CA Complete Count Committee), and provide some historic context (Dr. Margo Anderson). Dr Chris Williamson will moderate.

April 13, 2:45 p.m. to 4 p.m.
Timothy Olson | David Tucker

Collecting, Organizing and Communicating Planning Information

Do you use planning information in communications with fellow planners, supervisors, your clients or the community? If your answer is yes, this session reveals new, efficient, within-your-reach methods to effectively collect, organize, and communicate information.

April 13, 2:45 p.m. to 4 p.m.
Kathryn Schell | Cornelius Nuworsoo, AICP | Darcie White, AICP | Richard Crepeau | Amir Hajrasouliha | Chris Steins | Hemalata Dandekar

Curb Access Considerations for Emerging Mobility

Transportation/policy experts from San Francisco, Washington, D.C., and Uber discuss pros and cons of the ever-expanding menu of mobility options and management strategies being considered or employed by agencies and providers to safely and sanely accommodate them in cities.

April 13, 2:45 p.m. to 4 p.m.
Amy Smith | Karl Baynes | Warren Logan | Jay Primus
Elevated Chicago: Connecting People, Building Equity

How can communities ensure transit-oriented development that advances equity and prevents displacement? Learn about the process, strategies and early outcomes of Elevated Chicago, a cross-sectoral collaborative effort to advance racial equity, climate resiliency, health outcomes and arts/culture around transit stations.

April 13, 2:45 p.m. to 4 p.m.
Marcella Bondie | Juan Carlos Linares | Fran Lefor Rood, AICP

From Parking Lots to Places

International case studies of creative placemaking provide tools and inspiration for transforming suburban parking lots and strip malls into exciting social spaces. This course is approved to offer 1.25 LUs (AIA).

April 13, 2:45 p.m. to 4 p.m.
Paula Rees | Atul Sharma, AICP | Jason Roberts | Andy Altman | Caroline Sanders, AICP

GIS Workshop: 4/13 @ 2:45 PM - Planning for Sustainable and Equitable Economic Opportunity

This hands-on workshop utilizes web-based tools to analyze demographic, socio-economic, behavioral, and business data to better understand the overall characteristics and needs of the community and make better policy decisions in regard to developing and expanding existing business and efforts to recruit new businesses.

April 13, 2:45 p.m. to 4 p.m.
Ticket Required
Cost: $50.00
Keith Cooke

Gateway and Natural Amenity Region Planning

Gateway and natural amenity region communities, which abut national parks and prominent public lands, experience various visitation and growth-related pressures. This session engages participants in facilitated discussion about the unique challenges these communities face, resource needs, and promising solutions.

April 13, 2:45 p.m. to 4 p.m.
McKay Edwards, AICP | Zacharia Levine, AICP
Handling Climate Change Adaptation Pushback

Climate change adaptation programs in Miami Beach, New Orleans, and El Paso, Texas, have paused due to resident concerns, cost, fears of “climate gentrification,” and discussions of “retreat.” How can communities sustain ambitious adaptation efforts over multiple decades?
April 13, 2:45 p.m. to 4 p.m.
Alex David, AICP | Shaun Bourgeois | Jason King

Healing the Divide: Urban Interstate Caps

Interstate freeways cut through communities and stand as barriers to connectivity, economic development, and social justice. They are also just plain ugly. Learn how to use freeway caps to bring communities together and create new developable land in your downtown. This course is approved to offer 1.25 PDH (ASLA). This course is approved to offer 1.25 LU|HSW (AIA).
April 13, 2:45 p.m. to 4 p.m.
William Murdock, AICP | Kelly Scocco | Timothy Rosenthal | Leslie Montgomery | Christopher Hermann, AICP

Humanizing the Housing Crisis

This is not your typical APA housing session. Hear directly from one generation impacted by the current housing crisis. Getting away from numbers and statistics, this will help us remember who our work ultimately impacts most.
April 13, 2:45 p.m. to 4 p.m.
Katherine Poppel | Lisandro Orozco | Alesia Hsiao, AICP | Ellen Forthofer | Nicholas Chen, AICP

Impact Fees Since the Great Recession

A decade after the Great Recession, the world of public facility finance has not returned to a pre-Recession state of normalcy. This panel reviews the legal, technical, economic, and practical state of affairs for local government impact fee practitioners.
April 13, 2:45 p.m. to 4 p.m.
Robert Wallace, AICP | Amy Patterson | Arthur Nelson, FAICP | Tyson Smith, AICP
Multi-city Housing Collaboratives: Tango or Tangle

No city is an island, especially when it comes to addressing housing needs. Multi-city partnerships make it easier to adopt new housing policies, remove barriers to implementation, and achieve better results. Learn how to make it happen in your area.

April 13, 2:45 p.m. to 4 p.m.
Karina Milchman, AICP | Tara Beard, AICP | Joshua Abrams

Pedestrian Placemaking for All

Municipalities across the country recognize the multitudinous benefits of improving the public realm to support pedestrians and foster civic life. This session highlights creative ways that cities have delivered safe, interesting, inclusive, and inviting spaces for pedestrians. This course is approved to offer 1.25 LU|HSW (AIA). This course is approved to offer 1.25 PDH|HSW (ASLA).

April 13, 2:45 p.m. to 4 p.m.
Barkha Patel | Emily Weidenhof | Lily Langlois | Christopher Henry, AICP | Ryan Walsh, AICP

Technology's Impact on the Planning Practice

Get current on technology’s impact on the planning profession, especially as it relates to emerging professionals. Learn about current trends, benefits and challenges, ethical and equity considerations, and find out how planners can integrate technology into their career development.

April 13, 2:45 p.m. to 4 p.m.
Kimberly Burton, AICP CTP | Bradley Calvert, AICP | Bobbie Albrecht | Megha Sinha, AICP

Land Development Game (PLUS)

The land development game PLUS provides insight into how land and property markets work. Learn to think strategically about how the operation of markets can either help or hinder the accomplishment of goals.

April 13, 2:45 p.m. to 5:15 p.m.
Daphne Kenyon | Carlos Morales-Schechinger
National Planning Conference > Program

The Cannabis Industry: Experiences, Lessons Learned

The new cannabis industry has resulted in new regulation and actions required by local and state government. Planners must be informed about this new industry including land use impacts, regulatory controls, economic impacts, potential community benefits and political challenges.

April 13, 2:45 p.m. to 5:15 p.m.

Danielle Rosellison  |  Crystal Oliver  |  Pinky Vargas  |  David Burns, AICP

---

National Planning Conference > Program

Transportation's Missing Links: Planning Autonomous Shuttles

In this workshop, develop transportation and land-use plans around four autonomous shuttle use cases: downtown circulator, suburban retrofit, commuter rail station, and town and gown college campus. Explore opportunities, challenges, potential routes and land-use plans.

April 13, 2:45 p.m. to 5:15 p.m.

Craig Lewis, FAICP  |  Kelley Coyner

---

National Planning Conference > Program

Break

April 13, 4 p.m. to 4:15 p.m.

---

National Planning Conference > Program

Austin's Local Mobility Annual Plan (LMAP)

Passage of a $720 million mobility bond created a need to coordinate potential projects with multiple departments and programs. Learn how Austin’s Sidewalk, Safe Routes to School, Urban Trails, and Bicycle Programs use GIS tools for coordination, analysis, and planning.

April 13, 4:15 p.m. to 5:30 p.m.

Alison Mills  |  John Eastman, AICP  |  Janae Spence  |  Coleen Gentles
Caribbean Recovery, Walkability and Green Infrastructure

Following 2017 hurricanes, the U.S. Virgin Islands government, FEMA, CDC, and APA partnered to begin the rebuilding process while considering the interconnectedness of the built environment, public health, and disaster risk reduction. Get an overview with a case study on St. Thomas. This course is approved to offer 1.25 LU|HSWs (AIA).

April 13, 4:15 p.m. to 5:30 p.m.
Emily Ussery | Piotr Gajewski | Jonathan Halfon | John Heide, AICP

Considering a Career in Civic Tech?

Civic technology, or civic tech, is the new field of work that connects planning, technology and citizens -- and it's growing 23 percent a year. Hear from planners in civic tech as they discuss the evolution of this field.

April 13, 4:15 p.m. to 5:30 p.m.
Alicia Rouault | Erin Coleman | Lou Huang | Paul Salama, AICP

Crisis Planning in the Humanitarian World

Communities that are in crisis or conflict zones must focus on meeting their immediate needs. Planners can organize programs that address pressing problems while preparing for future development. Learn about the challenges of planning in emergencies and with humanitarian organizations.

April 13, 4:15 p.m. to 5:30 p.m.
Robert Schupp | Malkit Shoshon | Havard Breivik | Michael Kolber, AICP

GIS Workshop: 4/13 @ 4:15 PM - Bringing Geography to Design: Using Web-Based 3D to Plan and Analyze Communities

This combines analytics, sketching tools, and dashboards to help you immediately visualize designs and scenarios. You will learn how to assess data, define key indicators, and compare scenarios, while engaging the public, to make a data-driven decision, without any GIS knowledge.

April 13, 4:15 p.m. to 5:30 p.m.
Ticket Required
Cost: $50.00
Brooks Patrick
Integrating Climate Science into Local Planning

While climate change is certain, its local impacts are anything but. This session will offer a wide array of lessons learned and technical guidance for planners looking to integrate climate science into their local planning efforts.

April 13, 4:15 p.m. to 5:30 p.m.
Veronica Fall  |  Brian Daly  |  Joseph DeAngelis, AICP

Music History as a Preservation Catalyst

What does Prince have to do with preservation planning? Find out in this engaging session on the Minneapolis Music History Project, a yearlong process to identify the buildings and districts in the city important to locals worth protecting.

April 13, 4:15 p.m. to 5:30 p.m.
Elizabeth Gales  |  Jason Wittenberg, AICP  |  Stephanie Rouse, AICP

Overcoming Barriers for Biking to School

Hear one path to success from an experienced panel of planners, engineers and administrators, then identify and address barriers for biking to elementary schools, turning bike policy from no to yes.

April 13, 4:15 p.m. to 5:30 p.m.
Erin David, AICP  |  Melodi Yanik  |  Brett Schock, AICP

POTUS + Planning = Progress

US Presidents--past, and present, and future--are more accessible to planners than you think! Chasing legacy, lobbying Congress, hitting the 2020 campaign trail, and leveraging the national media are all methods planners can use to influence politics at the top.

April 13, 4:15 p.m. to 5:30 p.m.
Martin Laws, AICP  |  Leroy Pooley  |  Elizabeth Wood, AICP
Rethinking Food Systems Planning

Learn how planners and associated professionals from across the nation are breaking down barriers to use regional food systems to foster entrepreneurship, generate jobs, develop cross-sector partnerships, address land-use inequities, and revitalize distressed neighborhoods in rural and urban communities. This course is approved to offer 1.25 PDH|HSW (ASLA).

April 13, 4:15 p.m. to 5:30 p.m.
Sibella Kraus | Elliott Smith | Luis Nieves-Ruiz, AICP | Tera Johnson | Mike Ortosky

Road Map Pursuing Your Dream Career

Get valuable tools to sharpen your skills while pursuing your dream job. Learn how to take charge of your career path and move forward to the next level as a professional.

April 13, 4:15 p.m. to 5:30 p.m.
Mark Cunningham, AICP | Amanda Montoya | Adriana Trujillo-Villa, AICP

Strategic Downtown Revitalization with Stakeholders

Downtown and commercial center revitalization is a slow process. Focused strategic planning with intense stakeholder involvement can serve as a catalyst for action, building momentum, and moving the dial. Examine such efforts in at eight communities.

April 13, 4:15 p.m. to 5:30 p.m.
Paula Reeves, AICP CTP | Erin Simmons | Antoine Bryant | Wayne Feiden, FAICP

Towers, Cranes—and Street Life

These are boom times in yesterday’s ”back-of-house” districts. Amid large traffic volumes and dizzying change, can we achieve a sense of place? In San Francisco, the streets of Yerba Buena and Transbay are ground zero for a creative placemaking response. This course is approved to offer 1.25 LUs (AIA). This course is approved to offer 1.25 PDHs (ASLA).

April 13, 4:15 p.m. to 5:30 p.m.
Constance Cavallas | Paul Chasan | James Stickley
Using Nature To Fight Nature's Threats

Can working with nature be a faster, greener, cheaper, safer way to respond to sea level rise and intensified storms? What's developing in nature-based "green" alternatives and can they replace or complement traditional "gray" infrastructure? Join us to explore answers! This course is approved to offer 1.25 PDH/HSW (ASLA).

April 13, 4:15 p.m. to 5:30 p.m.
Jeremy Lowe  |  Marilyn Latta  |  Doug George  |  Alex Westhoff, AICP

Sustainable Communities Annual Business Meeting

Interested in the Sustainable Communities Division? Come join us for an overview of division activities and next steps. We can all be fashionably late for the opening reception!

April 13, 5:30 p.m. to 6:15 p.m.

Welcome Reception

Join your colleagues for the Welcome Reception at Moscone Center West. Lite food and beverage will be served. Music by Plan It Rock band!

April 13, 6 p.m. to 8 p.m.

Welcome Reception Additional Ticket

Join us for the 2019 Welcome Reception. Tickets for the Welcome reception are available for $50 for guest registrants.

April 13, 6 p.m. to 8 p.m.
Ticket Required
Cost: $50.00

Texas A&M University Alumni Reception

April 13, 7 p.m. to 9 p.m.
Planning and the Black Community Division Business Meeting and Reception

PBCD Business Meeting and Reception will be held at the Museum of the African Diaspora. Participants will have an opportunity to view the Museum's current exhibit: Black Refractions- Highlights from the Studio Museum in Harlem and network with PBCD members and supporters. To gain entry into the museum, you must purchase a ticket to enter the Museum. Reception will immediately follow the Business Meeting.

April 13, 7 p.m. to 10 p.m.
Ticket Required
Cost: $10.00

Saturday, April 13 | 8 p.m.

Columbia GSAPP Urban Planning Reception

Please join the GSAPP Urban Planning program for a private cocktail reception at the American Planning Association's 2019 National Planning Conference in San Francisco. During the annual conference, thousands of planning professionals come together to discuss current issues, trends, challenges, and solutions that are shaping planning today. Pre-registration is required.

April 13, 8 p.m. to 9:30 p.m.
Ticket Required
Cost: $10.00

Saturday, April 13 | 8:30 p.m.

Beach Blanket Babylon Musical Revue

Beach Blanket Babylon, the world’s longest-running musical revue and one of the most popular San Francisco attractions, is a high energy pop culture satire and the perfect night out with friends. The San Francisco Chronicle says Beach Blanket Babylon is a “must-see” and gives the show it's highest rating! Celebrating over 16,000 performances, Beach Blanket Babylon has become a world-renowned reco

April 13, 8:30 p.m. to 10:30 p.m.
Ticket Required
Cost: $30.00
Sunday, April 14

NPC19 5k Run and Walk

Join your APA friends for a morning run along the Bay! Sign-up to take a morning run through the historic Embarcadero before your packed day of education. You don't have to be a marathon runner to join; everyone is welcome!

April 14, 6:30 a.m. to 10 a.m.
Ticket Required
Cost: $40.00

Sunday, April 14 | 7:30 a.m.

Urban Design and Preservation Division Meeting

April 14, 7:30 a.m. to 8:30 a.m.

PAB Presidents' Breakfast (Invitation Only)

April 14, 7:30 a.m. to 9 a.m.

Speaker Ready Room

April 14, 7:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Planning Leadership Institute - Sold Out

The Planning Leadership Institute provides planning professionals with a full day of intensive training and professional reflection. PLI provides the skillsets and mindsets needed to exercise leadership, influence stakeholders, face challenges, and shape a legacy in your community. It is a once-a-year opportunity to connect with a select group of peers for a dynamic, interactive, creative, worksho

April 14, 7:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.
Ticket Required
Cost: $199.00

Gil Kelley, FAICP | Eric Klein
Planning Management Institute - Sold Out

The Planning Management Institute provides an intensive, interactive developmental opportunity for people who manage, or soon will manage, a public- or private-sector planning department. This practical, lively, hands-on workshop is a unique, annual opportunity to network with peers and learn best practices from a team of experts with national reputations. Participants will learn how to take their

April 14, 7:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.
Ticket Required
Cost: $199.00
Gary Winters | Michael Blue, FAICP | Janet Ruggiero, FAICP

Sunday, April 14 | 8 a.m.

Lessons From California - Invitation Only

Nationally, California has emerged as a leader in disaster risk reduction. The state is one of 10 states that mandate that natural hazards be addressed as a required element of the local general plan and one of four states that require integration of hazards planning across plans. In addition, California is one of three states, including Hawaii, and Oregon, that require that comprehensive plans a

April 14, 8 a.m. to 9:30 a.m.
Laurie Johnson, FAICP | Michael McCormick, AICP

Orientation Tour - Sun. 8:00 AM

San Francisco is not the city you thought you knew! See the planning issues the City by the Bay has to grapple with as it balances rapid growth with livability/affordability. A must-see for first-timers and return visitors.

April 14, 8 a.m. to 11:30 a.m.
Ticket Required
Cost: $40.00

Downtown Revitalization: Implementation Lessons Learned

Tour downtown Livermore as it continues to revitalize and learn about innovative community outreach tools, establishing public-private partnerships, re-energizing the commercial streetscape, and implementation lessons learned. Wine country lunch with tasting of South Livermore Valley wines is included.

April 14, 8 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.
Ticket Required
Cost: $95.00
Steve Stewart, AICP | Marc Roberts | Paul Spence
Sunday, April 14 | 8:30 a.m.

National Planning Conference > Program

A Decade of Demand Responsive Parking

Learn how the revolution in variable priced parking that started in San Francisco has reduced congestion, increase parking availability and encourage non-auto travel, and is now spreading to cities across America and positioning cities for a future of curb management for more than just cars.

April 14, 8:30 a.m. to 9:45 a.m.
Becky Edmonds | Richard Willson, FAICP | Kristopher Carter | Danielle Dai | Lauren Mattern | Frank Wheeler, AICP

Access to Experiences, Not Acres

We are creatures of habit. Changes in how we function require easy access to resources and reliability in the system. Learn how Montgomery Parks and Park Rx America are mapping, prioritizing and encouraging walking access to outdoor experiences, not acres. This course is approved to offer 1.25 LU|HSW (AIA). This course is approved to offer 1.25 PDH|HSW (ASLA).

April 14, 8:30 a.m. to 9:45 a.m.
John Henderson | Christopher McGovern | Cristina Sassaki, AICP

Affordable Housing and Growth Management

Affordable housing is a major challenge for growth management, especially in highly desirable locations. This session presents efforts in the Bay Area and greater Seattle to provide affordable housing while managing growth. Key takeaways: public-private partnerships and flexible regulations.

April 14, 8:30 a.m. to 9:45 a.m.
Edward Blum, AICP | Ethan Daniels | Thomas Daniels

Big Infrastructure Money in Participatory Budgeting

Participatory budgeting (PB) is an equitable civic engagement innovation that is influencing billions of capital planning dollars. From regional transportation budgets in California to a citywide PB in NYC, you'll discover scalable models to bring PB to your community.

April 14, 8:30 a.m. to 9:45 a.m.
Maulin Mehta, AICP | Eric Howell | Ginevra Browne | Shari Davis | Jennifer So Godzeno, AICP
Building the Civic Capacity Muscle

In smaller, older industrial cities, strong civic infrastructure is a critical component to revitalization. Just as our muscles can become stronger through deliberate training, small cities with limited resources can strengthen their civic infrastructure through small, strategic steps.

April 14, 8:30 a.m. to 9:45 a.m.
George McCarthy  |  John Collier  |  Derek Santos  |  Michael Ionna, AICP

Computer Vision and Community Vision

Computer vision enables the transformation of any image into an observation of an asset or behavior. This presentation focuses on computer vision as an enabling technology that can help communities plan their futures.

April 14, 8:30 a.m. to 9:45 a.m.
Ryan Cook, AICP  |  David Wasserman, AICP

Density Bonuses: Let's Get the Bonus!

What are the components of an effective affordable housing density bonus program? Why don’t more developers take the bonus option? This session provides in-depth guide to developing and adapting a bonus program suitable for your community.

April 14, 8:30 a.m. to 9:45 a.m.
Lisa Wise, AICP  |  Ian Carlton  |  Joe Zehnder

Do Smaller Schools Prevent School Violence?

In the nation’s fifth-largest school district, school prototypes are "mega-schools" due to rapid population growth and tight budgets. Local leaders are concerned about large schools, school violence, neighborhood impacts, and poor student performance and are funding $1.5 million in interventions.

April 14, 8:30 a.m. to 9:45 a.m.
John Tapogna  |  Courtney Coughenour  |  Lisa Corrado, AICP
Everyday Racism: What Planners Can Do

Highlight the barriers faced by African American and Latinx planning professionals, faculty, and students in planning education and practice. Four recent studies explore perceptions and personal experiences of racism in the workplace and in institutions.

April 14, 8:30 a.m. to 9:45 a.m.
Stacy Harwood | Ivis Garcia, AICP | Elizabeth Tyler, FAICP | April Jackson

Growing Water Smart: Integrated Resilience Planning

Concerned about water and your quality of life? How your community grows affects your water future and resilience to the impacts of climate change. Learn how integrating water and land-use planning can better ensure resilient communities and watersheds.

April 14, 8:30 a.m. to 9:45 a.m.
Andrew Spurgin, AICP | Jim Holway, FAICP | Jeremy Stapleton

Implementation of the Sustainable Development Goals

See how members of the Global Planners Network are using the Sustainable Development Goals to improve their planning. Practical examples from the U.S. and other cities show how the SDG metrics can elevate planning in places of all sizes.

April 14, 8:30 a.m. to 9:45 a.m.
Stephanie Firestone | Eleanor Mohammed | Dyan Currie | Richard Stephens | Jeffrey Soule, FAICP

New Technology for Resilience and Recovery

From sea level rise in Honolulu to fire recovery in Sonoma County, extreme weather and natural disasters make resilience planning essential to ensuring strong, safe, and equitable futures for our communities. Discover how your fellow planners are using data science and emerging technology to support smart climate adaptation and recovery plans.

April 14, 8:30 a.m. to 9:45 a.m.
Matthew Raimi, AICP | Chris Barney
On the Frontlines of Equitable Placemaking

NYCDOT’s Plaza Equity Program demonstrates how private-public partnerships are leveraged to ensure community stewardship of public space in underserved neighborhoods. Stories from neighborhood plazas offer insights into the benefits and challenges of creating and maintaining a truly equitable public realm.

April 14, 8:30 a.m. to 9:45 a.m.
Laura Hansen  |  Andrew Ronan

Policy Planning in San Francisco

Learn about the varied policy approaches three San Francisco agencies take to solve some of the city’s largest issues, such as affordable housing, regulating new industries, preserving neighborhood character, and more.

April 14, 8:30 a.m. to 9:45 a.m.
Jeff Buckley  |  Lee Hepner  |  Aaron Starr  |  Audrey Butkus

Smart Mobility Tool for Healthy Communities

Health risk factors are heavily influenced by a community’s built and social environment. Development and application of the innovative “Smart Mobility” GIS model correlates land use, urban design, and transportation factors in assessing the built environment’s impact on public health.

April 14, 8:30 a.m. to 9:45 a.m.
Marlon Maus  |  Tyler Johnson, AICP  |  Curtis Ostrodka, AICP

BETTMAN SESSION: Effective Legal Tools for Problem Properties

Problem properties are a constant frustration to planners working for neighborhood change. Learn how to navigate legal challenges that problem properties pose and utilize legal tools available to deal with them more effectively.

April 14, 8:30 a.m. to 10 a.m.
Jessica Bacher  |  Alan Mallach, FAICP  |  Dwight Merriam, FAICP
Ethics Cases of the Year: 2019

This session explores current planning ethics topics, based on seven real-life misconduct cases and informal inquiries reviewed during the previous year by the AICP ethics officer and the AICP Ethics Committee.

April 14, 8:30 a.m. to 10 a.m.

Staron Faucher, AICP | Bonnie Johnson, AICP | Karen Wolf, FAICP | Robert Barber, FAICP | Valerie Hubbard, FAICP

Orientation Tour - Sun. 8:30 AM

San Francisco is not the city you thought you knew! See the planning issues the City by the Bay has to grapple with as it balances rapid growth with livability/affordability. A must-see for first-timers and return visitors.

April 14, 8:30 a.m. to noon

Ticket Required

Cost: $40.00

Community-led Placemaking in Oakland

Street murals designed and painted by the community instill a sense of pride in a neighborhood. A bicycle tour visits several street murals that were painted as part of Paint the Town pilot program in Oakland.

April 14, 8:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m.

Ticket Required

Cost: $55.00

Lily Brown | Samah Itani

Legislative Forum

This annual event is the place to hear how Planners’ Advocacy Network members are engaging with elected officials to influence relevant planning policy outcomes at every level of government. You will also learn about federal and state legislation APA is watching that could impact how your community plans.

April 14, 9 a.m. to 10:15 a.m.
Transbay Transformation: San Francisco's New Downtown

San Francisco's lead planners who are responsible for the planning and implementation of San Francisco's Transbay and Rincon Hill, from the soaring towers redefining the city's famous skyline to the new neighborhood forging new ground in high-density livability.

April 14, 9 a.m. to noon
Ticket Required
Cost: $25.00
Joshua Switzky

San Francisco: Old and New TDM

On this mobile workshop, learn about new and old TDM policies and see where they have been implemented, while riding a historic motorized cable car through one of the most beautiful cities in the world.

April 14, 9:30 a.m. to noon
Ticket Required
Cost: $70.00
Paul Bignardi, AICP | Charles Rivasplata

Public Art for Planners

April 14, 9:45 a.m. to 10 a.m.

Networking Break Sponsored by AARP

April 14, 9:45 a.m. to 10:30 a.m.

Exhibit Hall Open

April 14, 9:45 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.
My APA Profile, Creating your Value Proposition

My APA is an uncomplicated way to connect with APA members. Take advantage of this under-the-radar networking power tool by updating your member profile with your personal value proposition. Provided by Sequence Staffing.

April 14, 10 a.m. to 10:30 a.m.

Career Services: "Ask Me Anything" with the author of A Guide for the Idealist

Richard Willson, FAICP, author of the APA blog series, “Launching Your Planning Career: A Guide for Idealists,” will be available to answer questions about launching and navigating your planning career. Launching questions include the pros and cons of public, private, and non-profit work, education, AICP certification, and moving into a new area of practice (re launching). Navigating questions addr

April 14, 10 a.m. to noon

Technology Division Annual Business Meeting

April 14, 10 a.m. to noon

Career Services: Resume Clinic

In partnership with Sequence Staffing, APA is offering our annual Resume Clinic in the Career Zone. APA members can get one-on-one feedback, insights, and tips from fellow members who have volunteered their expertise, private- and public-sector hiring managers, AICP Fellows, APA division leaders, and many others. Sequence Staffing, a premier executive search and recruitment firm, is committed

April 14, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.
Tour the Concord Naval Weapons Station

Tour the 5,000-acre former Concord Naval Weapons Station military base converting to civilian use. Hear from city staff, the master developer, and urban designers about community land-use planning and opportunities to add economic growth and much-needed affordable, transit-oriented housing in the Bay Area.

April 14, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.
Ticket Required
Cost: $85.00
Audrey Shiramizu

Beyond the Usual Suspects: How to Deliver Ongoing, Equitable Engagement

April 14, 10:30 a.m. to 11 a.m.
Kim Lundgren

Building Better Cities with Nature

Curious about how to harness ecosystem services as a tool in environmental planning? Using the Great Lakes basin as a case study, hear a cooperative dialogue on a timely topic for our generation. This course is approved to offer 1.25 PDH|HSW (ASLA).

April 14, 10:30 a.m. to 11:45 a.m.
Eva Marie Tropper | Warren Mabee | Carolyn DeLoyde

Countywide Bicycle Plans — Riding the Momentum

Shifting bicycle culture in auto-dominated counties is a challenging task. Learn how regional planning agencies in Silicon Valley and Montgomery County leveraged partnerships with key stakeholders and momentum generated through countywide bicycle plan development to implement a world-class bicycling network.

April 14, 10:30 a.m. to 11:45 a.m.
Lauren Ledbetter | Peter Bennett | Peter Gray | David Anspacher
Creating a Fair and Complete Census

The U.S. census, planning’s most fundamental demographic resource, needs improvements to its data about race and ethnicity. While recommendations to make those changes have been offered, the fairness and accuracy of the 2020 census are potentially at risk.

April 14, 10:30 a.m. to 11:45 a.m.
Kathy Chin | Danielle Ngo | Victor Rubin

Enhancing Community Resilience Through Comprehensive Planning

As part of its comprehensive plan update, Washington, D.C., is integrating resilience as a new cross-cutting policy framework for the first time. Learn about D.C.’s innovative comprehensive plan policy development to further resilience for a rapidly growing historic city.

April 14, 10:30 a.m. to 11:45 a.m.
Tanya Stern, AICP | Darrin Punchard, AICP

Fast, Funny, and Passionate 2

This curated selection of eight bite-sized presentations will both entertain and inform you. They capture the flavor of today's planning – from a variety of perspectives. This grouping is ideal for those interested in hearing the stories of the people, places, and experiences that make planning such a dynamic and interesting profession.

April 14, 10:30 a.m. to 11:45 a.m.
David Henning, AICP | Kathleen Reilly | Steve Sievers, AICP | Christina Anderson, AICP | Dyan Currie | Daniel O'Shaughnessy, AICP | Michael Maloy, AICP | Audrey Butkus

GIS Workshop: 4/14 @ 10:30 AM - Using Story Maps to Tell the Story of Your Community

In this hands-on workshop, with no programming and no GIS knowledge, you'll use ready-made templates to tell a story about the assets of your community on the web to convey the message that you want and to foster additional discussion.

April 14, 10:30 a.m. to 11:45 a.m.
Ticket Required
Cost: $50.00
Keith Cooke
Human Trafficking and Land-use Policy

In this session, you will learn how Land Use Policy and Advocacy Planning can help with the fight against Human Trafficking. You will walk away with a toolkit on how you can implement such tools.

April 14, 10:30 a.m. to 11:45 a.m.
Manuel Munoz | Edson Ibanez

Investing in Health, Revitalizing Rural Communities

EPA's Healthy Places for Healthy People joins rural community leaders and health care partners to create healthy and economically vibrant downtowns — improving health, protecting the environment, and supporting economic growth. Pilot-round communities discuss wins, challenges, and building capacity.

April 14, 10:30 a.m. to 11:45 a.m.
Kathleen Rooney | Gabriel Pena | Cary Simmons | Teresita Bendito | Stephanie Bertaina | Shawn Hayden

Oakland's Zero Net Energy Master Plan

The Oakland EcoBlock can show communities a path to meeting today's environmental challenges by creating places that simultaneously reduce resource use, work with minor changes to codes, and use innovative financing and governance structures allowed by California law. This course is approved to offer 1.25 PDH|HSW (ASLA).

April 14, 10:30 a.m. to 11:45 a.m.
Amy Dryden | Anthony Nahas | Daniel Hamilton | Gregory Thomson | Christine Scott Thomson, AICP

Plans as Catalysts for Change

The Burlington, Vermont, “planBTV: Downtown and Waterfront Master Plan” has refined citywide goals for sustainable development into actionable strategies for the community's central core. Learn how this award-winning plan has resulted in dramatic and unprecedented transformation in Vermont's largest city.

April 14, 10:30 a.m. to 11:45 a.m.
Sandrine Thibault, AICP | Meagan Tuttle, AICP | David White, FAICP
Retail/freight/jobs/robotics = Land Use Revolution

Our over-retailed land-use environment is coinciding with the rise of autonomous technology and evolving consumer goods logistics. This session outlines potentially staggering ways that rising autonomy and robotics will impact land use and investment in all our communities.

April 14, 10:30 a.m. to 11:45 a.m.
Richard Stein, AICP  |  Justin Robbins, AICP

Smart Policies for a Changing Climate

Climate change is intensifying negative impacts of standard development and putting people and communities at risk. Learn about key planning/design strategies and public polices to promote climate-smart communities from members of ASLA's Blue Ribbon Panel on Climate Change and Resilience.

April 14, 10:30 a.m. to 11:45 a.m.
Ying-Yu Hung  |  Vaughn Rinner  |  Armando Carbonell, FAICP

Tough Transit Decisions: Rail Extension Denied

What are the necessary conditions for a regional rail expansion project to proceed? The BART-to-Livermore extension, which ultimately was rejected, offers important insights into what is needed, what is not sufficient, and what can derail a project.

April 14, 10:30 a.m. to 11:45 a.m.
Andrew Tang  |  Chester Fung  |  Lori Parks Severino  |  Joel Ramos

Unlocking Potential for Center City Housing

What are communities doing to unlock their full potential for urban housing? Many cities are paving the way for great, high density neighborhoods. Hear about what Santa Monica, Oakland, and Seattle have done to meet aggressive housing goals.

April 14, 10:30 a.m. to 11:45 a.m.
Darin Ranelletti  |  Geoff Wentlandt
Women of Color, Piercing the Ceiling

Over the past 20 years women have made significant advances into high level management position within the planning and allied professions. But few women of color have realized the same advancement within the profession. Five women of color share how they pierced the double glass ceiling.

April 14, 10:30 a.m. to 11:45 a.m.

Yu Liu, AICP | Maxine Griffith, FAICP | Therese McMillian | Connie Galambos Malloy

Working Lands, Regional Resilience

Learn about the Santa Clara Valley Agricultural Plan, funded by California's Sustainable Agricultural Lands Conservation Program. Now being implemented, it creates a new paradigm — a regional framework that preserves working lands, supports a vibrant economy and mitigates climate change.

April 14, 10:30 a.m. to 11:45 a.m.

Amie MacPhee, AICP | Sibella Kraus | Michael Meehan

BETTMAN SESSION: Gentrification and the Law

This session explores historic trends and patterns in gentrification, legal tools that could be used to slow or mitigate the impacts of gentrification, the constitutional constraints on local government anti-gentrification actions, and potential unintended consequences of different interventions. This course is approved for 1.50 Illinois MCLE general credit hours.

April 14, 10:30 a.m. to noon

William Anderson, FAICP | Cathy Creswell | Bijal Patel | Donald Elliott, FAICP

Political Expression and Planning Ethics

Recent news stories have made us aware that FBI agents can have political opinions, can share political opinions, but cannot allow political opinions to influence their investigations. We couldn't help but wonder: Do urban planners have the same latitude?

April 14, 10:30 a.m. to noon

Clarence Eng, FAICP | Kimberly Glas-Castro, AICP | Anthony LaColla, AICP | Ramond Chiaramonte, FAICP | Melissa Zornitta, AICP
Career Services: Professional Headshots

Dress for the job you want and smile for the camera. A professional photographer will do the rest! First come, first served.

April 14, 10:30 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Delegate Assembly

This annual event is the forum where chapter-appointed delegates debate, amend, and adopt the policy positions at the heart of APA policy guides. Conference attendees are invited to watch the policymaking process unfold.

April 14, 10:30 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Wildfire Recovery and Resilience in Action

In October 2017, Sonoma County was hit hard by the most destructive wildfire in California's history. See the scope of the fires' destruction, learn about ongoing fire hazards, and witness the community's recovery and resilience efforts.

April 14, 10:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Ticket Required

Cost: $85.00

Pete Parkinson, AICP

Connect 2 Network

Want to take your networking skills to the next level? Learn how to nurture your network through guided exercises. Discover tech that can help to initiate and maintain relationships. Come away with an understanding of how to network to engage and network to share. Provided by Sequence Staffing

April 14, 11 a.m. to 11:30 a.m.

The Roll of Smart Infrastructure

April 14, 11 a.m. to 11:30 a.m.
Walking Tour: SF Accessory Dwelling Units

Accessory Dwelling Units (ADUs) are a vital tool that municipalities can leverage to increase density within an existing housing stock. Visit ADUs constructed in existing buildings in San Francisco’s unique neighborhoods.

April 14, 11:30 a.m. to 3 p.m.
Ticket Required
Cost: $30.00
Dori Ganetsos | Marcelle Boudreaux, AICP

Small Town and Rural (STaR) Business Meeting

April 14, 11:45 a.m. to 12:45 p.m.

Revealing the Curb: How AV data could be the key to unlocking curb value

The autonomous vehicle industry is investing billions into developing cars that don't require a driver. To enable vehicles to do this, new sensor stacks are being developed that are continuously scanning the environment. The resulting high resolution data yields a better understanding of what is happening at our curbs. Together with advances in artificial intelligence and ever-increasing computing power...

April 14, noon to 12:30 p.m.

Housing and Community Development Division Business Meeting

April 14, noon to 12:45 p.m.
Modular Housing Factory Tour

Factory OS is meeting the need for affordable housing through modular construction. This mobile workshop includes a tour of the factory and Lennar's Mare Island base reuse project, and a stop in Emeryville, where a modular apartment is being assembled.

April 14, noon to 4:30 p.m.
Ticket Required
Cost: $70.00
Afshan Hamid | Charles Bryant, AICP

The SMART Way to Transit

Ride the ferry across the Bay, travel on the new SMART train linking Marin and Sonoma, bus back to the City across the Golden Gate, while learning and experiencing a part of the complex transportation network within the Bay Area.

April 14, 12:15 p.m. to 5:15 p.m.
Ticket Required
Cost: $85.00
Jonathan Schuppert, AICP | Kristine Bickell Gaspar

Online Community Engagement for Transportation Planning

April 14, 12:30 p.m. to 1 p.m.

Ever Upward: Outer San Francisco

This multimodal mobile workshop leaves the core of San Francisco to explore the working-class, multigenerational households, and the multicultural neighborhoods on the city's southern border.

April 14, 12:30 p.m. to 3:30 p.m.
Ticket Required
Cost: $25.00
Seung Yen Hong | Reanna Tong, AICP Candidate
Orientation Tour - Sun. 12:30 PM

San Francisco is not the city you thought you knew! See the planning issues the City by the Bay has to grapple with as it balances rapid growth with livability/affordability. A must-see for first-timers and return visitors.

April 14, 12:30 p.m. to 4 p.m.
Ticket Required
Cost: $40.00

Wine in Livermore, Black Vintners Tour

California produces 90% of the wine made in the United States. Napa and Sonoma are best known and largest areas for wine making. The Livermore Valley is lesser known and probably the oldest wine region in California. Even a lesser known fact is that there are over 15 wine makers in California, who are African American. This tour and panel discussion will visit a Black owned tasting room and hear

April 14, 12:30 p.m. to 6:30 p.m.
Ticket Required
Cost: $80.00

Derek Hull  |  Jeanette Dinwiddie-Moore, FAICP

Sunday, April 14 | 12:45 p.m.

Land Trusts: Affordable, Cooperative and Restorative

Visit the Bay Area Consortium of Community Land Trusts's housing cooperatives, commercial nonprofit spaces, and affordable homes — all made affordable long-term using the land trust model.

April 14, 12:45 p.m. to 4:45 p.m.
Ticket Required
Cost: $70.00

Ian Winters  |  Joanna Winter, AICP

Bike the Bay Trail!

Bicycle along the beautiful San Francisco waterfront, ride across the Golden Gate Bridge, and learn about planning for a world-class long-distance trail. Planners with the San Francisco Bay Trail guide this informative bike tour.

April 14, 12:45 p.m. to 5:45 p.m.
Ticket Required
Cost: $90.00

Laura Thompson  |  Maureen Gaffney
APA Leadership Elections

Through April 24 this year, the online nominations portal is open for APA members interested in serving in positions on the APA Board, AICP Commission, as well as many positions in chapters, divisions and on the Student Representatives Council. Learn more about these opportunities and about the roles and responsibilities of elected leaders in shaping the future of the organization.

April 14, 1 p.m. to 1:15 p.m.

Career Services: Mock Interview / MVP

Work with experienced recruiters in a conversational exercise to learn and test methods that will prepare you to ace a job interview. Please bring a sample job posting. Provided by Sequence Staffing.

April 14, 1 p.m. to 1:30 p.m.

Drink the Water: Trust Us!

The Philadelphia Water Department found major socioeconomic disparities in drinking water behavior through customer research. In the wake of the Flint water crisis, discover how planners can build trust and promote safe drinking water for all through research and engagement.

April 14, 1 p.m. to 2:15 p.m.

Nina Hoe | Tiffany Ledesma | Fay Strongin | Hailey Stern

Fun: Nightlife and Cities

Conflicts between nightlife businesses and residents are a significant issue for vibrant neighborhoods and entertainment districts in cities nationwide. In this session, explore how innovative approaches to planning, zoning, policymaking, and design can support nightlife and residents in cities. This course is approved to offer 1.25 LUs (AIA).

April 14, 1 p.m. to 2:15 p.m.

Brian Block, AICP | Sarah Hannah-Spurlock
GIS Workshop: 4/14 @ 1:00 PM Resilient by Design: Resilience Planning using Location Analytics

This hands-on workshop will show how simple web-based apps enable planning professionals to easily find patterns, gain situational awareness, explore what-if scenarios, and provide data-driven plans to decision makers.

April 14, 1 p.m. to 2:15 p.m.
Ticket Required
Cost: $50.00
Keith Cooke

Incorporating Schools in Growth Management Strategies

Learn how local governments and school districts are collaborating for effective community building and quality schools. Collaboration on school siting and school capacity encourages neighborhood sustainability, discourages sprawl, and can meet the needs of new development responsibly.

April 14, 1 p.m. to 2:15 p.m.
Saralee Morrissey, FAICP | Karen Wolf, FAICP

Innovation or Disruption? Electric Scooter Chronicles

Electric scooters have left many city officials scratching their heads on what to do in the Bay. How do regulators get it right and give the people, and the companies, what they want in a world of infinite mobility options?

April 14, 1 p.m. to 2:15 p.m.
Ozzy Arce | Danielle Harris | Brian No | Calvin Thigpen

International Development Institutions Sustainable Cities Planning

The session compares sustainable and green cities programs of international financial institutions (IFIs) such as the World Bank and USAID, focusing on what level and type of planning is used and whether and how planners are employed in their planning processes.

April 14, 1 p.m. to 2:15 p.m.
Jay Gonzalez | Ming Zhang | Jeffrey Soule, FAICP
Parking Maximums: Development Barriers and Opportunities

Developments with reduced parking provisions are less likely to be approved by financial institutions. Through an open debate between planners and lenders, this session aims to reach common ground and arm planners with key policies/financial tools to pursue these projects.

April 14, 1 p.m. to 2:15 p.m.
Ranadip Bose, AICP  |  Anthony Jordan  |  Lindsay Bayley  |  Malek Abdulsamad

Planning for Drought and Cascading Hazards

Drought recalls images of dry, cracked earth, low reservoir levels, and barren fields. As evidenced by recent events in California, planners must consider drought’s multi-hazard impacts to include wildfire, mudslides, and runoff from future storms.

April 14, 1 p.m. to 2:15 p.m.
Cathleen Carlisle  |  Cody Knutson  |  Logan Sand

Pop-Up! Retail

As cities continue to grapple with storefront vacancies, short-term retail concepts are becoming essential to re-establishing the density of commercial districts. Find out how cities are lowering barriers to entry for small local businesses through pop-up retail programs and incentives.

April 14, 1 p.m. to 2:15 p.m.
Sarah Filley  |  Brett Roler, AICP

Research You Can Really Use

Five scholars, each of whom has published important research in the Journal of the American Planning Association, summarize their most significant findings, making clear the direct relevance to current planning practice.

April 14, 1 p.m. to 2:15 p.m.
Arlie Adkins  |  Andrew Whittemore, AICP  |  Gian-Claudia Sciara, AICP  |  Ajay Garde  |  Mahbubur Meenar
Resilient Zoning: The Norfolk Experience

Norfolk's recently adopted zoning ordinance incorporates new and innovative regulatory tools that a city in a rising water environment can adopt to ensure its development practices adapt to such changing conditions in ways that are resilient into the future. This course is approved to offer 1.25 PDH|HSW (ASLA).

April 14, 1 p.m. to 2:15 p.m.

Martin Thomas  |  George Homewood, FAICP  |  Vladimir Gavrilovic, AICP  |  F. Craig Richardson

Short-term Rental Enforcement: Data and Innovation

After years of frustration, cities and counties are finally reaching satisfactory levels of short-term rental regulation compliance. Learn how these communities are achieving their goals by getting real-time data and using creative permitting processes.

April 14, 1 p.m. to 2:15 p.m.

Ulrik Binzer  |  Daniel Mick  |  Elizabeth Caraker, AICP

TransformingTech: Shaping the Geography of Innovation

Explore the maturation of S.T.E.M. industries as pertains to planning and real estate development, the evolving geography of advanced industry clusters, the expanding ecology of Innovation, and the transformative opportunities these trends hold for the American urban core. This course is approved to offer 1.25 LUs (AIA).

April 14, 1 p.m. to 2:15 p.m.

Benedict Tranel  |  Kelly Pretzer  |  Kristi Loui, AICP  |  Allison Albericci, AICP

Unplugged: The Paradigm of Aging-friendly Communities

An aging America is an invisible force shaping our communities. Explore innovations that shift the paradigm to aging-friendly communities including: quick-action grants to spark the momentum for local change; age-friendly models from universities; and new integrated mechanisms for service systems.

April 14, 1 p.m. to 2:15 p.m.

Michael Murray  |  Nancy McPherson  |  Caroline Cicero  |  Mildred Warner  |  Ramona Mullahey
Using Consultants in Unconventional Ways

How can you use your on-call consultants to your advantage in this time of limited resources, greater expectations, and complex projects? This session explores strategies to help agencies tap into the talents and extra horsepower on-call consultants can bring.

April 14, 1 p.m. to 2:15 p.m.
Christopher Koontz, AICP | Jami Williams | Brent Cooper, AICP

Win-Win-Win Urbanism: Sustainability, Equity, Resilience

The San Francisco Bay must solve for affordability and climate change simultaneously, applying sustainability leadership to address rising seas and increasing disparity. Key tools and lessons from innovative equitable/sustainable/resilient projects demonstrate co-benefits, dispelling the narrative that these aims can't coexist.

April 14, 1 p.m. to 2:15 p.m.
Doug Shoemaker | Lisa Fisher | Sandra Mendler

Let’s Talk About Privilege

Understanding privilege means awareness of how race, gender, sexuality, religion, and class affect us. Following AICP ethics guidelines to “seek social justice” can lead to discussions about privilege producing feelings of discomfort, defensiveness, or guilt. This session includes activities and strategies for avoiding pitfalls.

April 14, 1 p.m. to 2:30 p.m.
Cade Hobbick, AICP | Lindsey Lyles, AICP | Bonnie Johnson, AICP

Regulating Marijuana: Legal and Planning Issues

Thirty-three states and the District of Columbia have enacted laws legalizing marijuana in some form. This session advises planners on what must be done to comply with legal requirements when planning how to regulate – or prohibit -- marijuana businesses.

April 14, 1 p.m. to 2:30 p.m.
Karla Chaffee | greg minor
APA Leadership and Your Career
Learn about the many benefits of involvement in APA leadership. In addition to valuable experience for your resume, APA leadership provides extensive networking, facilitation skill building, and training opportunities. And, APA leadership offers significant opportunities to give back to the profession and build long lasting friendships.
April 14, 1:15 p.m. to 1:30 p.m.

Career Services: APA Volunteer Leadership and Your Career
Learn more about volunteering with APA as a student or recent graduate. Members of the Students Representative Council are on hand to share their experiences with the career enhancing opportunities available through volunteering.
April 14, 1:30 p.m. to 2 p.m.

Vulnerable Road Users In the Age of Data-- The SaaS Solution
April 14, 1:30 p.m. to 2 p.m.

Career Services: Professional Headshots
Dress for the job you want and smile for the camera. A professional photographer will do the rest! First come, first served.
April 14, 1:30 p.m. to 3 p.m.

Planning, Zoning, and Missing Middle Housing
This walking tour explores Oakland’s Rockridge and Berkeley’s Elmwood neighborhoods and their diversity of missing middle housing types such as duplexes, fourplexes, and cottage courts. Explore how to encourage these types through planning and zoning that addresses today’s housing challenges.
April 14, 1:30 p.m. to 5:30 p.m.
Ticket Required
Cost: $40.00
Daniel Parolek
Peninsula Bikeway Mobile Workshop

The Peninsula Bikeway is a coordinated effort of Redwood City, Menlo Park, Palo Alto, and Mountain View. Ride the interim bikeway and learn about planning for a high-quality route to increase bicycle commuting and access on the Peninsula.

April 14, 1:45 p.m. to 6:45 p.m.
Ticket Required
Cost: $65.00
Hugh Louch

Making Big Data Work for You

April 14, 2:15 p.m. to 2:45 p.m.

Networking Break

April 14, 2:15 p.m. to 2:45 p.m.

Iconic Public Buildings in the Tenderloin

Tour three architectural civic icons to experience how the federal government manages our nation’s public buildings, transforms historic assets into high-performance, modern workplaces, and develops new facilities according to the highest standards of design and sustainability.

April 14, 2:15 p.m. to 5:15 p.m.
Ticket Required
Cost: $20.00
Ruth Kroeger, AICP
Career Services: Grow Your Professional Network Through Advocacy

Engaging in planning issue advocacy is one way emerging professionals can strengthen and grow their networks. Talk with APA advocacy staff about the networking value of participating in APA’s Planners’ Advocacy Network of engaged advocates shaping federal and state policy outcomes.

April 14, 2:30 p.m. to 3 p.m.

Big City Planning Directors Meeting - Invitation Only

April 14, 2:30 p.m. to 5 p.m.

Nature in the City Biodiversity Planning

Join this mobile workshop to learn about San Francisco’s pioneering biodiversity program on the fly and in the field. We will visit many sites of natural area restoration and pilot studies integration of nature in the city, including ecological services.

April 14, 2:30 p.m. to 5:30 p.m.
Ticket Required
Cost: $65.00
Scott Edmondson, AICP

Orientation Tour - Sun. 2:30 PM

San Francisco is not the city you thought you knew! See the planning issues the City by the Bay has to grapple with as it balances rapid growth with livability/affordability. A must-see for first-timers and return visitors.

April 14, 2:30 p.m. to 6 p.m.
Ticket Required
Cost: $40.00
Becoming AICP: Advice from Credentialed Members

This is an interactive opportunity to pick the brains of individuals who are AICP-certified. They will share what they may have done differently to prepare for the exam and what the exam experience is really like.

April 14, 2:45 p.m. to 4 p.m.
Felicia Braunstein  |  Jennifer Graeff, AICP  |  Alex Wallach, AICP

Beyond the Loop

Kansas City's downtown has been thriving with recent streetcar service and economic development activity. Learn about this PEL study exploring alternatives for what's Next, including the urban planning potential associated with reshaping, consolidating or removing a portion of Interstate 70.

April 14, 2:45 p.m. to 4 p.m.
William Cline  |  Danny Rotert  |  Wes Minder

GIS Workshop: 4/14 @ 2:45 PM - Empowering an Informed Public: Generating and Analyzing Genuine Citizen Engagement

In this hands-on workshop, we will examine the changes in expectations of citizens, evolving from traditional public notification to modern demands for information and engagement. You will learn how easy-to-use apps can create a genuine partnership between citizens and their planning department and empower planning professionals to produce buy-in for better, more sustainable plans.

April 14, 2:45 p.m. to 4 p.m.
Ticket Required
Cost: $50.00
Keith Cooke

Helping Planners Bridge the Water Gap

The ability to effectively plan for and manage water is dependent on the integration of timely, accurate data and information. This session outlines new, state-of-the-art technology coming from NOAA and its partners to help address water issues.

April 14, 2:45 p.m. to 4 p.m.
Lori Cary-Kothera  |  Nicholas Schmidt  |  Joshua Murphy
Heritage Preservation: This Place Matters

Heritage preservation honors narratives, institutions, and cultural intangibles that contribute to a sense of place. Experts discuss management of America's history through community efforts to preserve heritage assets. Learn how to balance economic development and cultural development. This course is approved to offer 1.25 PDH (ASLA).

April 14, 2:45 p.m. to 4 p.m.
Carson Anderson  |  William Dupont

How Courier Network Services Impact Cities

The ease of online ordering combined with cheap delivery has fueled a rise in courier network services like Grubhub and UberEats. Compared to Uber and Lyft, however, these services have flown under the radar. Learn about what we know today.

April 14, 2:45 p.m. to 4 p.m.
Danielle Harris  |  Amanda Howell

How's SF Bay Area Fighting Displacement?

Booming urban areas today grapple with displacement issues. Bay Area representatives from academia, philanthropic organizations, and the city of San Francisco discuss their approaches to fighting displacement, collectively contributing to the shared goal of maintaining a diverse region.

April 14, 2:45 p.m. to 4 p.m.
Hugo Ramirez  |  Zachary McRae  |  Kimia Haddadan

LGBTQ Community Healing and Visioning

This workshop enhances planners' ability to see different perspectives by exploring sexual orientation/gender roles that impact the LGBTQ communities. Through this process planners can affirmatively partner with the LGBTQ community to make public spaces, communities, and cities more inclusive.

April 14, 2:45 p.m. to 4 p.m.
Monique Lopez, AICP
Mitigating Hazards Through Land-use Solutions

Wildfires, flooding, and drought, oh my! Land-use solutions are the most effective means of reducing risk to natural hazards but can be hard to tackle. Learn how to implement land-use strategies to create a safer community. This course is approved to offer 1.25 PDH|HSW (ASLA).

April 14, 2:45 p.m. to 4 p.m.
Kristen Valdez, AICP | Matthew Goebel, AICP | Margaret Doherty | Anne Miller, AICP

Navigating Intersections of Health and Transportation

Leaders at three Florida metropolitan planning organizations engage the audience through a spirited discussion about their work to incorporate health considerations into the transportation planning process. Their efforts are reframing the conversation regarding infrastructure investments in this growing state.

April 14, 2:45 p.m. to 4 p.m.
Whit Blanton, FAICP | Elizabeth Whitton, AICP | Valerie Neilson, AICP

Redefining Planning and Economic Development

The traditional model of economic development has undergone a rapid transition, and innovative planning has become essential to sustained economic growth. Learn how planners and economic development staff in Michigan are shattering silos and working together to build vibrant, sustainable communities.

April 14, 2:45 p.m. to 4 p.m.
Katharine Czarnecki | Bob Trezise | Michelle Parkkonen, AICP

Santa Cruz: Addressing the Housing Crisis

Santa Cruz is in the midst of a housing and homelessness crisis. This session provides an overview of the city’s practical, implementable, and measurable solutions to these crises based on local context, extensive community outreach, and organization-wide commitment.

April 14, 2:45 p.m. to 4 p.m.
Cynthia Chase | Tina Shull | Sarah Fleming, AICP
Trends in Green Roof Policy

In 2017 San Francisco adopted a new policy that requires roofs meeting certain requirements to provide both solar and green roofs. Portland, Oregon, adopted similar requirements for vegetated roofs, and Denver passed a citizens initiative at the ballot box requiring green roofs. This course is approved to offer 1.25 LU (AIA). This course is approved to offer 1.25 PDH (ASLA).

April 14, 2:45 p.m. to 4 p.m.

Andy Creath | Jeff Joslin | Mindy Brooks

Women in Private Practice: Career R/Evolutions

Women leaders discuss different paths through private practice, from climbing the ranks of a large multinational firm to starting their own practice. What constitutes success? Hear an engaging and candid discussion on challenges and rewards of private practice.

April 14, 2:45 p.m. to 4 p.m.

Briana Hensold | Rebecca Leonard, FAICP | Ellen Lou, AICP | Kathryn Firth | Silvia Vargas, AICP

Health and Equity in All Planning

Learn from public health and planning practitioners how to integrate health and equity in decision- and planmaking processes, and use cross-sector collaboration to strengthen planning processes with the aim of fostering healthy, equitable communities. This course is approved to offer 2.5 LU|HSWs (AIA).

April 14, 2:45 p.m. to 5:15 p.m.

Ashley Hefner, AICP | Karen Nikolai | Rebecca Stonefield | Meaghan Overton, AICP | Lianne Dillon | Tina Yuen

Placemaking's Role in Preserving Community Identity

Preserving community identity is crucial to the future of cities. The ArtPlace America Community Developments Investments initiative has innovated an equity-centered approach to placemaking, centering community voice in the midst of neighborhood change. Learn how in this roundtable.

April 14, 2:45 p.m. to 5:15 p.m.

Tyler Robinson, AICP | Primus Wheeler | Grant Sunoo | daniel johnson | Enzina Marrari | Tina Takemoto
Plan4Equity Forum

Interested in what APA is doing to promote diversity, inclusion and equity, both within and outside the organization? Attend the Plan4Equity Forum to learn from APA leaders about several new strategies and programs that will help promote these goals.

April 14, 2:45 p.m. to 5:15 p.m.

Elizabeth Tyler, FAICP | Susan Wood, AICP | Kurt Christiansen, FAICP | Miroo Desai, AICP | Marcella Bondie | Miguel Vazquez, AICP

Setting the Standard for Code Audits

Updating codes is an important task that should be guided by careful planning. If you are considering an update, learn how an audit can help you ensure your update is on target, efficient, and supported.

April 14, 2:45 p.m. to 5:15 p.m.

Cynthia Bowen, FAICP | Robert Barber, FAICP | Pamela Caskie | Kathleen Aoki | Allison Mouch, AICP

Sunday, April 14 | 3 p.m.

Become an Expert with APA Learn

April 14, 3 p.m. to 3:15 p.m.

Learn to Use Virtual Reality in Planning

April 14, 3 p.m. to 3:30 p.m.

Meet the Editors & Meet the Authors

April 14, 3 p.m. to 4 p.m.
San Francisco's Castro Street

City of San Francisco planners and designers lead an urban design and history-focused tour of San Francisco's famous Castro Street, a historic center of LGBTQ community life and activism, and the evolving commercial heart of a vibrant neighborhood.

April 14, 3 p.m. to 5:30 p.m.
Ticket Required

Cost: $25.00

Nicholas Perry | Robin Abad Ocubillo

Smart Mobility in the Suburbs

April 14, 3:30 p.m. to 4 p.m.

Break

April 14, 4 p.m. to 4:15 p.m.

APA Student Design Competition

April 14, 4:15 p.m. to 5 p.m.

Addressing Inequities in Transportation Planning

Inequity, exclusion, and gentrification are very real issues facing many communities. This session explores timely research about bicycle lanes and gentrification; immigrant travel; Vision Zero equity and enforcement; and tangible, results-based strategies to address systematic disparities.

April 14, 4:15 p.m. to 5:30 p.m.

Lindsay Braun | Jesus Barajas | Anikwenze Ogbue | Tamika Butler
Broadband: Get Started Today

Broadband is an essential infrastructure for communities to participate in a global digital economy. Communities across the country are taking part in local broadband and technology planning efforts. Learn why and how to get better connected.

April 14, 4:15 p.m. to 5:30 p.m.
Nicholas Pilarski | Sarah Bassett | Rebecca Nathanson | Eric Frederick, AICP

Cultural Planning in the Mississippi Delta

Even small towns have a story to tell. In this case study, leaders from Marks, Mississippi, and the Carl Small Town Center discuss how cultural planning helped commemorate Martin Luther King Jr.’s 1968 Mule Train event.

April 14, 4:15 p.m. to 5:30 p.m.
Leah Kemp | Thomas Gregory, AICP

Early Lessons in Connected Vehicle Deployment

Have you wondered about connected vehicles (CV) and their implications for urban mobility? This session explores real practical deployment of CV technology as well as early lessons learned from the USDOT Connected Vehicle Pilot Deployment Program.

April 14, 4:15 p.m. to 5:30 p.m.
Robert Frey, AICP | Steve Novosad | Sue Chrzan | Wendy Tao

Equity? Health? Planning? Yes! But How?

Equity and health are increasingly topics of concern in communities across the country. Learn about tools and frameworks to plan for health and equity from practitioners who have put these ideas into practice.

April 14, 4:15 p.m. to 5:30 p.m.
Maulin Mehta, AICP | Gretchen Armijo, AICP
GIS Workshop: 4/14 @ 4:15 PM - Bringing Geography to Design: Using Web-Based 3D to Plan and Analyze Communities

This combines analytics, sketching tools, and dashboards to help you immediately visualize designs and scenarios. You will learn how to assess data, define key indicators, and compare scenarios, while engaging the public, to make a data-driven decision, without any GIS knowledge.

April 14, 4:15 p.m. to 5:30 p.m.
Ticket Required
Cost: $50.00

Negotiating Transit-TNC Partnerships That Work

Transit agencies and transportation network companies (TNCs) are increasingly partnering to offer low-cost, on-demand service. This session discusses cutting-edge research from TCRP on the risks and rewards these partnerships offer, and explores how transit agencies can cultivate successful partnerships.

April 14, 4:15 p.m. to 5:30 p.m.

Resiliency Planning Through Parks: East Harlem

How do you build resilience in a community where climate adaptation is one of many competing priorities? This case study examines how New York City parks led an interagency process in East Harlem that integrated climate and social resilience with parks planning.

April 14, 4:15 p.m. to 5:30 p.m.

SF Cultural Districts: Strategically Intercepting Gentrification

San Francisco is a worldwide tourist destination, but a housing shortage has placed a strain on some of our most vulnerable and culturally rich neighborhoods. Learn how cultural districts can be a tool for communities to intercept gentrification and shape change.

April 14, 4:15 p.m. to 5:30 p.m.
SRC / YPG Exchange
April 14, 4:15 p.m. to 5:30 p.m.

San Jose’s Approach to Retail Restructuring
The retail apocalypse isn’t! This is a can’t-miss session for planners wanting to learn how San Jose recognized a dynamic retail environment and drove the creation of a comprehensive retail strategy that took into account the reurbanization of traditionally suburban areas.
April 14, 4:15 p.m. to 5:30 p.m.
Timothy Rood, AICP | Nanci Klein | David Greensfelder

Tragedy and Tourism: Reconciling and Renaissance
Museums can amplify civic discourse, accelerate cultural change, and contribute to the society equity action among residents and policymakers. Learn how museums that focus on tragedy can bring people together for reconciliation and conversations to make our communities better.
April 14, 4:15 p.m. to 5:30 p.m.
Joy Bailey-Bryant | Lynda Wool, AICP | Tracey Corbitt, AICP

Urban Air Mobility
This panel features thought leaders in the emerging space of urban air mobility (UAM). The program emphasizes technological developments, opportunities and challenges, enabling technologies, equity, and potential societal barriers to UAM.
April 14, 4:15 p.m. to 5:30 p.m.
Jarvis Murray | Justin Guan, AICP Candidate | Adam Cohen

Everything Old Is New Again
How strict should planners be with nonconformities? What about nonconforming site features such as parking and landscaping? Today’s gentler approaches allow nonconformities to expand and grow. Learn how to raise the bar without stifling redevelopment. This course is approved for 1.50 Illinois MCLE general credit hours. This course is approved to offer 1.50 LU (AIA). This course is approved
April 14, 4:15 p.m. to 5:45 p.m.
Abram Barge, AICP | Brian Connolly
Fun Ethics Session

Ethics can be entertaining and fun! Be challenged to consider personal bias, character, and courage, all with a smile on your face. No scenarios here, just a hardy helping of integrity. Afterward you'll say, "Wow, it's been 90 minutes already?!"

April 14, 4:15 p.m. to 5:45 p.m.
Brian Carter, AICP  |  Ernest Boughman, AICP

Public Schools Interest Group Annual Meeting

This will be the 4th Annual Meeting of the APA Public Schools Interest Group, which was established in 2015.

April 14, 4:30 p.m. to 5:30 p.m.

Women & Planning Division Annual Business Meeting

All are welcome to attend our annual business meeting to learn more about our Division - which is celebrating its 40th anniversary this year! You will meet with members of the Executive Team including the Chair and Vice-Chair, share and discuss opportunities and goals for the coming year, and meet other planners interested in advancing opportunities for women in the planning field. Light refreshments

April 14, 4:30 p.m. to 5:30 p.m.

Water and Planning Network Meeting

April 14, 5 p.m. to 6 p.m.

Career Services: Mentor Match Mixer

Open to all in the Mentor Match program including the AICP Candidate Pilot Program. Meet up at the event and kickoff your mentoring relationship. Do you want a mentor, or would you like to be one? Come to this event to meet in person and make a connection.

April 14, 5:30 p.m. to 7 p.m.
Planning and Law Division Happy Hour
Come network with PLD members and enjoy great conversation!
April 14, 5:30 p.m. to 7 p.m.

Multi-division & chapter reception!
April 14, 5:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m.
Ticket Required
Cost: $10.00

Women & Planning Division Reception (MEMBERS ONLY)
All are welcome and encouraged to attend the Women & Planning Division's annual reception! The evening will foster casual and engaging opportunities to meet a strong community of planners committed to lifting up one another punctuated by a few inspiring words from our keynote speaker. This is a very special year for the Division, we are celebrating our 40th anniversary!
The setting for the rec
April 14, 5:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m.
Ticket Required
Cost: $45.00

Women & Planning Division Reception (NON-MEMBER)
All are welcome and encouraged to attend the Women & Planning Division's annual reception! The evening will foster casual and engaging opportunities to meet a strong community of planners committed to lifting up one another punctuated by a few inspiring words from our keynote speaker. This is a very special year for the Division, we are celebrating our 40th anniversary!
The setting for the rec
April 14, 5:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m.
Ticket Required
Cost: $75.00
Women & Planning Division Reception (STUDENT/UNEMPLOYED ONLY)

All are welcome and encouraged to attend the Women & Planning Division’s annual reception! The evening will foster casual and engaging opportunities to meet a strong community of planners committed to lifting up one another punctuated by a few inspiring words from our keynote speaker. This is a very special year for the Division, we are celebrating our 40th anniversary! The setting for the rec

April 14, 5:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m.
Ticket Required
Cost: $15.00

Arts & Planning Interest Group Program and Social

The APA Arts and Culture Interest Group (APIG) welcomes NPC19 attendees to our fourth annual program+reception celebrating the role that the arts and culture plays in advancing a more diverse, inclusive and equitable planning profession and practice. Attendees will have an opportunity to meet APA Arts and Planning Interest Group and APA Diversity Committee leaders and hear brief remarks from mo

April 14, 5:30 p.m. to 8 p.m.

Sunday, April 14 | 6 p.m.

APA Regional and Intergovernmental Planning Division Annual Meeting

April 14, 6 p.m. to 7 p.m.

Knowlton School at The Ohio State University

April 14, 6 p.m. to 8 p.m.

Weitzman School of Design Alumni Reception

Please join Lisa Servon, Professor and Chair of City Planning, and your fellow alumni for a festive reception during the APA Conference in San Francisco. While you catch up with friends, Professor Servon will share her upcoming plans for the Department of City and Regional Planning at The Weitzman School of Design. Please register here: https://www.alumni.upenn.edu/APASF2019

April 14, 6 p.m. to 8 p.m.
Sunday, April 14 | 6:30 p.m.

National Planning Conference > Program

Asia SF Dinner Show brought to you by the APA LGBTQ Division

At AsiaSF our goal is to make “time of your life” memories. The atmosphere is so richly saturated with friendliness and good-cheer that it is nearly impossible to resist joining in the merriment as soon as you enter. A true celebration of human diversity, our AsiaSF restaurant experience brings you our world famous transgender stars – The Ladies of AsiaSF.

These beautiful and talented ladies

April 14, 6:30 p.m. to 9 p.m.

Ticket Required

Cost: $60.00

---

Sunday, April 14 | 7 p.m.

National Planning Conference > Program

Magic Bus San Francisco - Canceled

Step aboard Antenna Theater's Magic Bus and take our time machine back to the 60s. With bubbles in the air and a flower in your hair, travel with us to San Francisco's Summer of Love. This, over two-hour, adventure is a mind-bending combination of professional theater, film, music, and sightseeing that explores the visionary mix of music, art, politics, and culture which came together in Haight-As.

April 14, 6:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m.

Ticket Required

---

Sunday, April 14 | 7:15 p.m.

National Planning Conference > Program

International Dinner (Invitation Only)

April 14, 7 p.m. to 10 p.m.

---

Sunday, April 14 | 7:15 p.m.

National Planning Conference > Program

SRC / YPG Social

This year's YPG/SRC social event will be held at the TableTop Tap House (175 4th St, San Francisco CA). Come join your fellow students and emerging planners to network and engage in fruitful conversation. Light refreshments will be provided.

April 14, 7:15 p.m. to 10 p.m.
Student Social Event
April 14, 7:15 p.m. to 10 p.m.

Monday, April 15

Fitness Activity - Yoga
Join your APA friends for morning Yoga at the Presidio! Enjoy the early morning Golden City views before starting your day with some fitness along the Bay. This session is open to all yoga levels; beginners and advanced yogis are welcome to join.
April 15, 6:30 a.m. to 10 a.m.
Ticket Required
Cost: $40.00

Planning and Law Division Annual Business Meeting
Connect with other professionals and hear more about the benefits of PLD membership!
April 15, 7 a.m. to 8:30 a.m.

Discover East Bay
Learn about the planning issues redefining San Francisco's neighbors across the bay — Oakland, Berkeley, and Emeryville — as well as San Francisco's up-and-coming (literally) neighborhood of Treasure Island in the middle of the bay!
April 15, 7:30 a.m. to noon
Ticket Required
Cost: $70.00
Barry Miller, FAICP | Robert Zimmerer, AICP
Speaker Ready Room
April 15, 7:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Monday, April 15 | 8 a.m.

National Planning Conference > Program >

Economic Development Division Meeting
April 15, 8 a.m. to 9 a.m.

National Planning Conference > Program >

JAPA Editorial Board Meeting
April 15, 8 a.m. to 10 a.m.

National Planning Conference > Program >

Smart Cities Task Force Meeting
April 15, 8 a.m. to 10 a.m.

National Planning Conference > Program >

Ferries, Bikes, and Last-Mile-Connections
April 15, 8 a.m. to noon
Ticket Required
Cost: $55.00
Kimberly Avila, AICP
Monday, April 15 | 8:30 a.m.

National Planning Conference > Program >

Advancing Racial Equity Through Comprehensive Planning

A history of racially restrictive housing policies has left a lasting effect on residents of cities across the country. Learn about efforts in Minneapolis to address racial disparities in housing through comprehensive planning and inclusionary zoning.

April 15, 8:30 a.m. to 9:45 a.m.
Lisa Bender | Andrea Brennan | Heather Worthington | Paul Mogush, AICP

---

National Planning Conference > Program >

All About Scenario Planning

This session takes participants through the basics of what scenario planning is, when to use it, and how to get started. This introduction is grounded by stories from practitioners who have recently completed planning projects using scenario planning.

April 15, 8:30 a.m. to 9:45 a.m.
Brett Fusco | Benjamin Zellers, AICP

---

National Planning Conference > Program >

California's Bike/Ped Big Data Tool

Caltrans and active mode big data experts share the outcomes of designing and using a statewide active mode data tool. Learn about integrating multiple sources of data, and how Caltrans puts big data to use for planning.

April 15, 8:30 a.m. to 9:45 a.m.
Christopher Nicholas | Sean Co

---

National Planning Conference > Program >

Directors' Perspectives on the Region

Progressive city planning directors in the area around, and including San Francisco share the results of an all-day retreat that paints a vivid picture of the state of city and regional planning in the San Francisco region.

April 15, 8:30 a.m. to 9:45 a.m.
Albert Savay, AICP | Dina Tasini | Andrea Ouse, AICP | Paul Jensen, AICP | Hillary Gitelman | William Gilchrist | John Rahaim | Rosalynn Hughey
Wildfires have caused staggering housing losses across the United States. But what burns, and why? Can planning protect communities from devastation? A veteran firefighter and planner are here to answer all your questions on fire behavior, land use, and housing.

April 15, 8:30 a.m. to 9:45 a.m.
Molly Mowery, AICP | Dave Shew | Michele Steinberg | Edith Hannigan

This panel highlights Indigenous Hawaiian knowledge as it is applied to the city. Explore a key assumption that Indigenous values and lifeworlds cannot be manifest and practiced in cities.

April 15, 8:30 a.m. to 9:45 a.m.
Ulalia Woodside, AICP | Mark McKeague, AICP

Youth are typically left out of transportation planning projects even though people under 25 are active transportation users. Discover a toolbox of innovative methods for integrating untapped perspectives from future decisionmakers to better inform transportation projects.

April 15, 8:30 a.m. to 9:45 a.m.
Alisa Sautter | Darcy Kitching | Morgan Huber | Kathleen Guthrie, AICP

Learn how innovative planning can overcome the challenges of sustainable stormwater resilience by integrating life cycle management of green and gray stormwater measures into the planning and design process. This creates creating jobs in disadvantaged communities especially hard hit by flood risk. This course is approved to offer 1.25 PDH|HSW (ASLA).

April 15, 8:30 a.m. to 9:45 a.m.
Jonathan Carey, AICP | Niek Veraart, AICP | William Cesanek, AICP
Olympic Legacy Planning

What is the role of planning in the aftermath of a mega-event such as the Olympics? This session explores the ways in which the design and impact of the Olympic Games have affected host communities years after the event is over.

April 15, 8:30 a.m. to 9:45 a.m.
Mike Dobbins, FAICP  |  Myles Rademan  |  Bruce Erickson, AICP  |  Harry Burchill

PAB Accreditation: Value for the Profession?

April 15, 8:30 a.m. to 9:45 a.m.

Planning for Sign Code Success

"Planning for sign code success" meets "Ted Talks." This fast-paced and engaging session provides up-to-date information on Reed v. Town of Gilbert, regulating electronic message centers/smart signs, and regulations that encourage creative design.

April 15, 8:30 a.m. to 9:45 a.m.
Jason Morrison, AICP  |  Mark White, AICP  |  Deacon Wardlow  |  Linda Edwards, AICP

Sea Level Rise Planning Beyond 1.5°C

The latest special UN report on climate change found that unprecedented changes must be made by 2030 to avoid warming above 1.5°C. How are planners taking sea level rise into account from San Francisco to New York City?

April 15, 8:30 a.m. to 9:45 a.m.
Michael Marrella, AICP  |  Richard Mullane  |  Sarah Dougherty  |  Jessica Fain, AICP  |  Ashley Muse

Smart Cities for Dummies

What is a Smart City? How do we design them? Why should we care? Are Smart City technologies just for big cities, or will smaller cities and towns benefit, too? Smart Cities for Dummies explores these topics, and more!

April 15, 8:30 a.m. to 9:45 a.m.
Chelsea Collier  |  Andrew Watkins  |  Benjamin Block
Strategies Toward Racial Equity in Planning

A cross-sector group of San Francisco Bay Area practitioners share best practices, strategies, barriers, and opportunities for advancing racial and ethnic equity in planning. Apply those lessons to your own contexts in real time through a number of breakout sessions, and leave with immediate next steps.

April 15, 8:30 a.m. to 9:45 a.m.
Darlene Flynn | Will Dominie | Danielle DeRuiter-Williams | Seema Adina, AICP | Christy Alexander, AICP

SupUrbia: Changing Perceptions Through Process Improvements

Planners, developers, and decisionmakers seeking to improve their jurisdiction’s reputation and/or delivery of development services learn about Walnut Creek’s Blueprint for Success, the positive changes it has fostered, and how to draft a blueprint back home.

April 15, 8:30 a.m. to 9:45 a.m.
Hamid Taeb | Eric Harrison | Lauren Seaver | Ethan Bindernagel, AICP

Transformation of Stamford's South End

The South End of Stamford, Connecticut, presents an incredible story of transformation of 80 acres of brownfield into a bustling waterfront neighborhood. After a decade of successful growth, new development walks a tightrope as it expands into historic South End.

April 15, 8:30 a.m. to 9:45 a.m.
Thomas Madden, AICP | Ellen Neises | David Woods, AICP | Vineeta Mathur, AICP

Valuing and Managing the Public Right-of-way

New mobility options are flooding our streets while existing infrastructure revenue streams are dwindling. Discover the techniques cities and states are exploring and implementing to gain control of and fund their streets, curbs, and sidewalks.

April 15, 8:30 a.m. to 9:45 a.m.
Laura Pennebaker | Dirk van Amelsfort | Hank Willson | Paul Salama, AICP
Religious Inclusiveness in Wake of RLUIPA

RLUIPA has had unintended consequences that can be overcome in many instances when the stakeholders are open about their interests, are willing to work collaboratively, and come together early and openly in the land-use application process. This course is approved for 1.50 Illinois MCLE general credit hours.

April 15, 8:30 a.m. to 10 a.m.
Frank Fish, FAICP | Ken Walters | Dan Dalton | Dwight Merriam, FAICP

Emeryville: Rotten City Transformed

Emeryville, California, once was dubbed “the rottenest city on the Pacific Coast.” Come witness its amazing transformation into a vibrant hub of art and innovation, home of numerous cutting edge companies such as Pixar, Novartis, and the Joint BioEnergy Institute.

April 15, 8:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m.
Ticket Required
Cost: $75.00
Chadrick Smalley | Miroo Desai, AICP | Diana Keena, AICP | Charles Bryant, AICP

College of Fellows Meeting

April 15, 9 a.m. to 10:15 a.m.

Exploring the Cannabis Industry

Take a trip to into California's cannabis industry! Learn about land-use and other regulatory issues facing the industry by visiting a grow facility, manufacturing facility, and retail store. This is your opportunity to speak with industry and regulatory experts.

April 15, 9 a.m. to noon
Ticket Required
Cost: $59.00
Aaron Starr | Daniel Sider, AICP
BART TOD Planning: The East Bay

This best-of tour briefly hits the latest TOD planning and development near BART Stations in the East Bay, ranging from planned but undeveloped station areas in suburban locations, to transitioning TOD districts and high-intensity urban infill in downtown Oakland. The tour is led by a representative from BART and by a local planner who has completed station area plans for many of BART's East Bay stations.

April 15, 9:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.
Ticket Required
Cost: $35.00
Aaron Welch

Mission Bay: From Biohazard to Biotech

Walk around the booming Mission Bay and Dogpatch districts, San Francisco's newest communities. Learn about the new developments, partnerships and catalytic projects that transformed mostly industrial land into the city's most desirable biotech hub and mixed-use communities in two decades.

April 15, 9:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m.
Ticket Required
Cost: $48.00
Joo Im | Lingyue Chen, AICP | Athina Loumou, AICP

Networking Break

April 15, 9:45 a.m. to 10:15 a.m.

Planning Commissioner/Board Member Networking Event

Join APA's Planning Officials Committee and your commissioner colleagues from across the country for coffee and the opportunity to network, share experiences, and make new connections. Learn about APA resources and share how APA can help you serve your communities.

April 15, 9:45 a.m. to 10:45 a.m.
Better Greener Roofs — San Francisco Showcase

In 2017, San Francisco became the first U.S. city to mandate solar and living roofs on most new construction. See a handful of the city’s better roofs with stunning views of the city!

April 15, 9:45 a.m. to 12:45 p.m.
Ticket Required
Cost: $55.00
Kay Cheng

Exhibit Hall Open

April 15, 9:45 a.m. to 6:30 p.m.

AVs & Equity, Environment and Economic Opportunity

How do communities create an AV future that harness the benefits of the technology and mitigates potential harm. Join a “fireside chat” with Katie Rooney of the Ulupono Initiative and Kelley Coyner of Mobility e3 as they discuss Ulupono’s commitment to accessible, automated, connected, electric and share mobility. (A2CES).

April 15, 10 a.m. to 10:30 a.m.

Career Services: Put Your Career on the Fast Track

Learn more about the AICP Candidate Pilot Program.
April 15, 10 a.m. to 10:30 a.m.

Reweave the Urban Fabric: Hayes Valley

Twenty years after an earthquake-induced freeway collapse divided the neighborhood, Hayes Valley is a thriving model of urban repair. Take a walk with local architects and planners who were deeply involved in the renewal to learn what worked and why.

April 15, 10 a.m. to 1 p.m.
Ticket Required
Cost: $20.00
Sarah Ahmadzai
Career Services: Resume Clinic

In partnership with Sequence Staffing, APA is offering our annual Resume Clinic in the Career Zone. APA members can get one-on-one feedback, insights, and tips from fellow members who have volunteered their expertise, private- and public-sector hiring managers, AICP Fellows, APA division leaders, and many others. Sequence Staffing, a premier executive search and recruitment firm, is committed

April 15, 10 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.

Cannabis Ordinances: Models for Growth

The development of urban and rural Cannabis policy for the 2018-2019 year, highlighting the nationally acclaimed models across California, in particular Humboldt County, Santa Barbara County, and the City of Santa Rosa through a discussion by policy and industry leaders.

April 15, 10:15 a.m. to 11:30 a.m.
John Ford | Das Williams | Clare Hartman, AICP

Climate Change: Local Risks, Ratings, Insurance

The financial market has a pivotal role to play in responding to a changing climate. This panel will bring together experts from the insurance, credit ratings agencies and FEMA to explore how these actors consider climate action in cities.

April 15, 10:15 a.m. to 11:30 a.m.
alex Wittenberg | Eric Hoffmann | Alison Kearns | Katherine Walsh

Dissecting TOD Supply, Affordability, and Displacement

This session dissects supply-side-focused TOD policy options that communities are exploring during our current housing crisis. Following an overview of the slate of innovative policy proposals, such as California's SB827, speakers delve into details and share policy research.

April 15, 10:15 a.m. to 11:30 a.m.
Anna Cash | Michael Wilkerson | Ian Carlton
Fast, Funny, and Passionate 3

This curated selection of nine bite-sized presentations will both entertain and inform you. They capture the flavor of today's planning from a variety of perspectives. This grouping is ideal for those interested in a mix of planning issues, from health, to affordable housing, to emerging technology, to public engagement, and more.

April 15, 10:15 a.m. to 11:30 a.m.
Laura Schewel | Natasha Miles | Beibei Zhang | Grant Wilson, AICP | Radha Hayagreev | Katherine Amidon, AICP Candidate | Ryan Vogel | Dave Biggs | Allison Crump, AICP

Flooding on Dock of the Bay

How can historic waterfront districts become more resilient to a changing climate? This session explores the intersection between iconic Bay Area resources and rising sea levels. Central to the discussion is the adapting of cultural assets while maintaining integrity and character.

April 15, 10:15 a.m. to 11:30 a.m.
Lindy Lowe | James Mallery | Brad Benson | Justin Vandever | Alex Westhoff, AICP

Fostering Equity in Transportation Planning

Regional and local agencies are increasingly recognizing their responsibility to advance equity, but how can they put policies into practice? In this panel, hear from Bay Area agencies that have converted regional policies into on-the-ground results.

April 15, 10:15 a.m. to 11:30 a.m.
Judis Santos | Alyssa Lane | Bob Allen | Christopher Kidd

GIS Workshop: 4/15 @ 10:15 AM - Planning for Sustainable and Equitable Economic Opportunity

This hands-on workshop utilizes web-based tools to analyze demographic, socio-economic, behavioral, and business data to better understand the overall characteristics and needs of the community and make better policy decisions in regard to developing and expanding existing business and efforts to recruit new businesses.

April 15, 10:15 a.m. to 11:30 a.m.
Ticket Required
Cost: $50.00
Keith Cooke
Goodbye Golf Courses, Hello Public Parks

Communities are increasingly converting private golf clubs into public parks and nature preserves. See examples of success from across the nation and hear from one team working to convert a 139-acre course into their city’s next great park. This course is approved to offer 1.25 LU (AIA).

April 15, 10:15 a.m. to 11:30 a.m.

Eric Bosman, AICP  |  Mack Cain, RLA, LEED AP  |  Jan Hancock  |  Carter Lucas  |  Charlene Mingus, AICP

---

Measuring Downtown's Value--to Everybody!

Downtowns are economic engines. This session focuses on measuring — and better communicating — downtown's value to cities and regions in promoting social and economic equity, turning diversity into community, supporting cultural and economic innovation, and similar building blocks for stronger cities and regions.

April 15, 10:15 a.m. to 11:30 a.m.

Beth Elliott, AICP  |  Jeff Fluhr  |  David Dixon

---

Planners for Climate Action

The role of urban and regional planners in addressing climate change is discussed in the context of the Paris Agreement, Sustainable Development Goals and New Urban Agenda.

April 15, 10:15 a.m. to 11:30 a.m.

Dyan Currie  |  Michael Boswell, AICP  |  Eleanor Mohammed  |  Jeffrey Soule, FAICP  |  Richard Stephens

---

Protecting Biodiversity in Urban Counties

Los Angeles County is an urban county in a biological hot spot. The county’s Significant Ecological Areas program balances natural resource protection with development. Find out how planners, biologists, and communities engaged to improve this balance through a decades-long planning process.

April 15, 10:15 a.m. to 11:30 a.m.

Patricia Hachiya, AICP  |  Joseph Decruyenaere  |  Iris Chi, AICP
Regions as Healthy Community Engines

Learn how one of the largest metropolitan regions in the United States — Riverside and San Bernardino counties — navigate the complexities of land use, economic development, environmental stewardship, and social justice to improve health outcomes and the built environment.

April 15, 10:15 a.m. to 11:30 a.m.

Christopher Gray, AICP | Josh Lee | Trudy Raymundo | Michael Osur

Resiliency Planning in Rural Coastal Maine

Learn how panelists use a checklist and in-depth conversations to help Maine's small coastal communities prepare for flooding.

April 15, 10:15 a.m. to 11:30 a.m.

Tora Johnson | Abbie Sherwin

The Extra Mile in Drought Planning

Drought mitigation techniques have advanced rapidly in recent years. Drought requires regional approaches and regional cooperation because it never is limited to one jurisdiction. Learn about water management planning, data integration, and enlisting non-traditional participants in planning.

April 15, 10:15 a.m. to 11:30 a.m.

Jeffrey Henson | Darion Mayhorn

Transportation Innovators: Next-Gen Solutions Implemented Today

Learn how to plan, fund, and implement next-gen transportation innovations from three entities that are putting ideas into practice, including the first city to pilot an AV shuttle, a regional planning agency, and a national mobility consultant.

April 15, 10:15 a.m. to 11:30 a.m.

Alicia Winkelblech, AICP | Alisyn Malek
Unveiling Identity: The Reinvention of America

Change is happening so fast in our communities and in our culture, and cities are at the core of our rapidly changing identity. Vibrancy, investment, division, and fragmentation make it important that planners recognize and address these dynamics.

April 15, 10:15 a.m. to 11:30 a.m.
Peter Pollock, FAICP | Nathaniel Baker, AICP | Bruce Knight, FAICP | Roger Waldon, FAICP

In Hindsight: Ethical Planning Dilemmas

Doing the right thing is not always easy. This session provides a refresher on the AICP Code of Ethics, using humorous, plausible planning scenarios.

April 15, 10:15 a.m. to 11:45 a.m.
Abram Barge, AICP | Erica Heller, AICP | Tareq Wafaie, AICP

Intergovernmental Dynamics: Politics, Laws, and Schoolhouses

Governmental structures can have significant impacts on communities, and regulating them can create intergovernmental tensions complicated by interrelated political and legal issues. Through an engaging program, dissect these issues and gain proven strategies to avoid a political mess. This course is approved for 1.50 Illinois MCLE general credit hours.

April 15, 10:15 a.m. to 11:45 a.m.
Michael Johnson | Frank Zotter | Kizito Wijenje, AICP | Candace Stowell, AICP

Monday, April 15 | 11 a.m.

Become an Expert with APA Learn

April 15, 11 a.m. to 11:15 a.m.

Smart Cities Empower Citizens and Customers

Matt Harmon-Gone are the days of driving to city hall to submit paper permit applications or calling the city to submit a service request. There is a better way. Cityworks and ArcGIS create a powerful solution to efficiently manage infrastructure, development, permits and regulations by providing solutions that allow city customers to do a lot of the work themselves. This session will provide an o

April 15, 11 a.m. to 11:30 a.m.
Career Services: From Graduation to the Workforce

Did you recently graduate, or are you about to? This is for you. Meet Gisla Bush, aka “GiGi The Planner,” a young professional with an entrepreneurial spirit and a passion for planning. Her goal is to share what she’s learned to help college students who are pursuing degrees in urban planning and assist them with next steps. She’ll discuss how to transition from college to a career and prepare you

April 15, 11 a.m. to noon

Wetlands to Wine: San Pablo Bay

Explore the restored wetlands of the San Pablo National Wildlife Refuge and see how the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service is working to provide equitable access to visitors through a catalog of transportation options.

April 15, 11 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Ticket Required

Cost: $135.00

Cristina Pastore, AICP | Elizabeth Tucker

Monday, April 15 | 11:45 a.m.

Awards Luncheon

Celebrate the planning profession as we honor achievements of both planners and planning, including the National Planning Awards. All full registrants are invited to the 2019 Awards Luncheon. Tickets are free, but are required to attend the event as capacity is limited. You must add this activity to your schedule to guarantee a slot in the luncheon. Once capacity is reached, tickets will be unavai

April 15, 11:45 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Ticket Required

Cost: $0.00

Awards Luncheon Additional Ticket

Celebrate the planning profession as we honor achievements of both planners and planning, including the National Planning Awards. All full registrants are invited to the 2019 Awards Luncheon. Tickets are free, but are required to attend the event as capacity is limited. You must add this activity to your schedule to guarantee a slot in the luncheon. Once capacity is reached, tickets will be unavai

April 15, 11:45 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Ticket Required

Cost: $50.00
Career Services: Creating Your Expert Brand

When you are perceived as an expert, people naturally want to work with you and will seek you out. This session focuses on a few simple strategies to build your brand as an expert. Provided by Sequence Staffing.

April 15, noon to 12:30 p.m.

Cityworks

April 15, 12:30 p.m. to 1 p.m.

Five Best Practices for Publishing your Plan

April 15, 12:30 p.m. to 1 p.m.

Learn to Use Virtual Reality in Planning

Steve Kokotas, MIG Chris Steins, Urban Insight Virtual reality (VR) has the potential to change how we think about and engage in the practice of planning. We will explore how VR is enabling innovative and cost-effective real-time and transparent planning. We'll demo an APA-award-winning virtual reality project in Orem, Utah, and then review how you can learn how to use VR for your own projects thrill.

April 15, 12:30 p.m. to 1 p.m.

APA Leadership Elections

Through April 24 this year, the online nominations portal is open for APA members interested in serving in positions on the APA Board, AICP Commission, as well as many positions in chapters, divisions and on the Student Representatives Council. Learn more about these opportunities and about the roles and responsibilities of elected leaders in shaping the future of the organization.

April 15, 1 p.m. to 1:15 p.m.
What is the latest on AV shuttles?

Craig Lewis from Stantec will moderate a discussion with vehicle providers and technology deployment experts to hear the latest on trends in vehicles and their uses in communities to meet real transportation needs.

April 15, 1 p.m. to 1:30 p.m.

'Unspecific Plans' That Adapt to Change

Regulatory tools such as Specific Plans in California ensure predictability, but they can inadvertently preclude desired outcomes as external factors change. We'll discuss the increasing need for flexibility in regulatory tools and explore how ‘Unspecific Plans’ can support long-term development potential.

April 15, 1 p.m. to 2:15 p.m.

Therese Brekke | Ellen Lou, AICP | Bill Ekern | Matthew Raimi, AICP

African American District Strategy Confronting Gentrification

Learn how the establishment of the African American Arts & Cultural District aims to help a community shape its future by building from a place of strength, despite an exodus of the African Americans from the Bay Area.

April 15, 1 p.m. to 2:15 p.m.

Diana Ponce De Leon | Shelley Caltagirone | Tyra Fennell | Elouise Patton | Deven Richardson

An Introduction to Geodesign

Get an introduction and overview of the emerging field of geodesign, and learn how communities are benefiting from software innovation.

April 15, 1 p.m. to 2:15 p.m.

Shannon McElvaney | Nikolas Davis | Robert Kain | Devin Lavigne, AICP

Career Services: Challenges and Solutions for First-Time Managers

AICP Fellows Rick Willson and Whit Blanton will facilitate an interactive discussion in the Career Zone on the challenges faced by first-time managers. Participants will have the opportunity to share their management and supervisory challenges and brainstorm their own solutions in small groups. Rick and Whit will offer suggestions for approaching the top management challenges identified in the group.

April 15, 1 p.m. to 2:15 p.m.
GIS Workshop: 4/15 @ 1:00 PM - Using Story Maps to Tell the Story of Your Community

In this hands-on workshop, with no programming and no GIS knowledge, you'll use ready-made templates to tell a story about the assets of your community on the web to convey the message that you want and to foster additional discussion.

April 15, 1 p.m. to 2:15 p.m.
Ticket Required
Cost: $50.00
Keith Cooke

Immigrant Gateways: Chinatowns

This session explores common issues concerning the role of historic Chinatowns as gateways where new immigrants live and work. Examine the relationship of historic Chinatowns to outlying satellite communities, with a focus on San Francisco, Oakland, and Philadelphia.

April 15, 1 p.m. to 2:15 p.m.
Yue Wu | Ener Chiu | Roy Chan

Integrating Resilience: Plan Coordination for USVI

Following 2017 hurricanes, the U.S. Virgin Islands was inundated with federal assistance, much of which required multiple planning efforts. The session explores how within the post-disaster environment the territory successfully engaged multiple plans and planning processes.

April 15, 1 p.m. to 2:15 p.m.
Kim Waddell | Greg Guannel | Jonathan Halfon | John Heide, AICP

Land Value Capture for Community Benefits

Public investment and governmental actions, such as up-zonings, can increase private property values. How can local governments capture some of that land value to support new infrastructure, affordable housing, and other amenities that improve quality of life for all residents?

April 15, 1 p.m. to 2:15 p.m.
Xinrui Shi | Abram Barge, AICP
Pedestrians and Equity in Latino Communities

Slowing traffic through traffic calming is effective and popular but costly. Low-income, minority, or immigrant communities use transit and active transportation at high rates but are at greater risk as pedestrians. Learn about ways to address this risk affordably.

April 15, 1 p.m. to 2:15 p.m.

Carlos Velasquez, AICP | James Rojas | Andrea Garfinkel-Castro | Ivis Garcia, AICP

Quantitative Scenario Planning in Practice

Learn how quantitative scenario planning helps in understanding the mathematical relationship between demand, such as demographic patterns, and supply, such as resource allocation, and applying it to multiple plausible future situations to respond adaptively to an unknowable future.

April 15, 1 p.m. to 2:15 p.m.

Elizabeth Schuh | Timothy Reardon | Janae Futrell, AICP

Reimagining Akron: Engagement, Equity, and Collaboration

Learn how Akron, Ohio, uses investments in three diverse neighborhoods, and the Ohio & Erie Canal Towpath Trail that connects them, to knit together isolated communities through the inclusive, collaborative reimagining of public places. It also is measuring impact through a new metrics system.

April 15, 1 p.m. to 2:15 p.m.

Dan Rice | James Hardy | Kyle Kutuchief | Eric Nelson | Lisa King

Short-Term Rentals: Turning Controversy into Consensus

The short-term rental (STR) marketplace is growing rapidly and changing communities. Hear how communities at the forefront of this issue are overcoming obstacles, and learn how communities can reach consensus on this controversial topic.

April 15, 1 p.m. to 2:15 p.m.

Jeremy Tejirian, AICP | Matthew Glesne | Ulrik Binzer | Linda Tatum, FAICP
The Future of Public Space

In this session, a diverse panel of designers, critics, artists, and policymakers explore what public space means in today’s world — across disciplines and cultures— while thinking about the future in an increasingly privatized and surveilled world. This course is approved to offer 1.25 LU (AIA). This course is approved to offer 1.25 PDH|HSW (ASLA).

April 15, 1 p.m. to 2:15 p.m.
John King | Garrett Jacobs | Peter Kindel | Elizabeth Marley | Jae Shin

The High Costs of Inequity

Get a personal sense of how inequities are created and how much it can cost jurisdictions for the additional public infrastructure and services to address symptoms of inequity. Learn about data sources that can bolster your argument for equitable development.

April 15, 1 p.m. to 2:15 p.m.
Bernardo Ruiz | Anindita Mitra, AICP

The Recipe for Successful Transit-Oriented Development

Explore the five essential ingredients for successful transit-oriented development and how to regulate/incentivize them through zoning. Three panelists review groundbreaking research, explore case studies, and help set the table for successful TOD projects in a variety of communities.

April 15, 1 p.m. to 2:15 p.m.
Reid Ewing | John Southgate | James Spung, AICP

Women and Active Travel

Do women have equal access to cycling, walking and public transit? Data on usage rates suggest they do not. Learn how we can improve planning and infrastructure designs to increase equal access to cycling, walking, and public transit.

April 15, 1 p.m. to 2:15 p.m.
Bruce Appleyard | Jana Schwartz, AICP | Sherry Ryan
Workforce Housing Strategies from Chicago Neighborhoods

Maintaining housing affordability and avoiding displacement in a diverse, transit-rich neighborhood presents considerable challenges. Learn how planners, developers, and community organizations in Chicago's North River communities fostered a collaborative, local approach to preserving and developing workforce housing.

April 15, 1 p.m. to 2:15 p.m.
Swasti Shah, AICP | Thomas Applegate

BETTMAN SESSION: Equity in Zoning: More Than Words

When it comes to zoning, the pursuit of equity must be more than just words. This panel of lawyers, planners, and architects will discuss what types of regulations and incentives can be adopted to produce more inclusive and equitable cities. This course is approved for 1.50 Illinois MCLE general credit hours.

April 15, 1 p.m. to 2:30 p.m.
Elizabeth Garvin, AICP | Andrea Ruiz-Esquide | Deborah Rosenthal, FAICP

How to Play Well with Others

Interpersonal skills such as relationship building, communication, negotiation and mediation are integral parts of planners' careers and can often be areas of ethical dilemmas. This session provides strategies to enhance interpersonal interaction while avoiding AICP Code of Ethics concerns.

April 15, 1 p.m. to 2:30 p.m.
C. Douglas Kelly, AICP | Barry Wilcox, AICP | Amy Elmore | Melissa Dickens, AICP

Career Services: Professional Headshots

Dress for the job you want and smile for the camera. A professional photographer will do the rest! First come, first served.

April 15, 1 p.m. to 3 p.m.

Monday, April 15 | 1:15 p.m.
APA Leadership and Your Career

April 15, 1:15 p.m. to 1:30 p.m.
Taking on Housing Affordability - from the Site to the Metropolitan Scale

Paul Waddell will present new tools to tackle the challenges of housing affordability, from rapid development feasibility for multi-family housing at the site scale, to city and metropolitan scale evaluation of the impact of policies on housing supply, demand, prices and rents.

April 15, 1:30 p.m. to 2 p.m.

Youth Engagement Workshop

Young leaders build stronger communities! This interactive workshop will emphasize the importance of youth engagement, provide hands-on activities focused on involvement and education, and putting these skills into action with a group of youth leaders working to end youth homelessness.

April 15, 1:30 p.m. to 5:30 p.m.

Ticket Required

Cost: $25.00

Meet the Director – David Rouse, FAICP, Research and Advisory Services

April 15, 2 p.m. to 3 p.m.

Shared Mobility in San Francisco

Explore San Francisco’s on-street shared mobility hubs, including bike-shares, car-shares, AVs, TNCs, scooters, and private transit. Learn how the city is leveraging data to evaluate and plan for shared mobility's role in transit demand management and the transportation ecosystem.

April 15, 2 p.m. to 5:30 p.m.

Ticket Required

Cost: $45.00

Darryl Yip  |  Kay Cheng
Autonomous Vehicle TechTalk

Join Corey Clothier of Mobility e3 and Jonathan Garrett of Stantec for tech talk and learn about how AVs work by taking a “tour” of the EasyMile vehicle on display in the Smart Mobility Hub (aka TechZone).

April 15, 2:15 p.m. to 2:45 p.m.

---

Networking Break

April 15, 2:15 p.m. to 2:45 p.m.

---

Grand Central Station of the West

Tour the Salesforce Transit Center and learn of improvements for buses serving the East Bay, and future South Bay rail connections. Is San Francisco's commute bad? Experience the East Bay commute and ride a double decker transit bus.

April 15, 2:15 p.m. to 6:15 p.m.

Ticket Required

Cost: $35.00

Linda Morris, AICP

---

Career Services: Working Abroad

Interested in working abroad but don’t know where to start? Learn from professionals about gaining experience, skill development, possible career paths, and strategies to prepare for living and working abroad. The presentation and discussion is hosted by APA's International Division, which offers information, networking, and professional development opportunities related to international planning

April 15, 2:30 p.m. to 3:30 p.m.
Heart of the City: Civic Center

See what’s new in San Francisco’s historic Civic Center with the planners, designers, and community partners working to improve its public realm. Get an exclusive guided ascent to the top of the iconic City Hall dome.

April 15, 2:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m.
Ticket Required
Cost: $25.00
Julie Flynn | Nicholas Perry | Stacy Radine Bradley, AICP

Data Jam Results: Get SF Transit Moving!

Data Jam participants will share insights and results from a day-long civic tech workshop that focused on transportation issues in the Bay Area.

April 15, 2:45 p.m. to 3:30 p.m.
Randall West | Steve Pepple | Nader Afzalan

Establishing a Regional Economic Development District

Local agencies, businesses, and community organizations are establishing a Greater Bay Area Regional Economic Development District. Why is this needed even in wealthy regions? Learn about initiatives and challenges in the Bay Area and the long-established Puget Sound EDD in Washington State.

April 15, 2:45 p.m. to 4 p.m.
Shijia Lu | Robert Sakai | Christina Briggs | Jason Thibedeau

GIS Workshop: 4/15 @ 2:45 PM - Analyzing Outreach with GIS

This hands-on workshop will walk you through the simple steps to take location-based community input and comments and find patterns in the input, including hotspots and priority areas, areas of consensus, and points of disagreement that can help inform your community’s plans and recommendations.

April 15, 2:45 p.m. to 4 p.m.
Ticket Required
Cost: $50.00
Keith Cooke
How to Use Theory in Practice

Learn how planners use and invent theories in their practice. Three scholar/practitioners show how it can be done with case studies of land-use regulation, advocacy, and planning with immigrants. Gain new perspectives about how to use theory in practice.

April 15, 2:45 p.m. to 4 p.m.
Lisa Bates  |  Anna Joo Kim  |  Richard Willson, FAICP

Innovations in Freight Planning

Freight impacts more than transportation. Three national experts discuss the latest freight innovations including: urban freight and deliveries, joint land-use planning opportunities, and new data sources. The session provides real-world solutions for land-use and transportation professionals.

April 15, 2:45 p.m. to 4 p.m.
Dike Ahanotu  |  Donald Ludlow, AICP  |  Tom Visee, AICP

Is Zoning Racist? Equity and Zoning

From its origins to today, zoning law has reflected our values of place, ideas about what is public versus private, and who can live where. Examine whether zoning’s inherent values or its unintended consequences reinforce racist practices. If so, how can we rewrite them?

April 15, 2:45 p.m. to 4 p.m.
Woo Kim, AICP  |  Claudia Flores  |  Tyler Cukar, AICP

Land Value Capture: Innovative Case Studies

Hear from experts on the latest land value capture initiatives in the U.S. and Europe, and explore an engaging set of case studies.

April 15, 2:45 p.m. to 4 p.m.
Alexander Stahle  |  Alex Steinberger  |  Abram Barge, AICP  |  Ian Tant  |  Troy Hayes, AICP
Managing Risk of Sea Level Rise

What happens when nuisance flooding becomes chronic and threatens property values, tax revenues, and the ability of government to respond? This session helps planners understand, manage, and plan for greater resilience in the face of these multifaceted changes.

April 15, 2:45 p.m. to 4 p.m.

Jens Thalheim | Gina Bartlett | Kristina Dahl

Members, Meetings, and Relationships

The planning commission is the board planners work with most closely. We are responsible for their training, updating bylaws, and conducting public hearings before them. Explore best practices for strengthening this relationship, training tips, and preparing them for controversial meetings.

April 15, 2:45 p.m. to 4 p.m.

Mara Perry, AICP | Emily Fultz, AICP | Aimee Nassif, AICP

Regenerative Urban Developments Are Changing Planning

Learn how the developing of regenerative cities of inclusive prosperity and well-being will scale sustainability to the next level of environment, economic and social health performance required for 21st century urbanism.

April 15, 2:45 p.m. to 4 p.m.

Scott Edmondson, AICP | Kirstin Weeks | Greg Taylor

Strategies for Creating Tomorrow’s Planning Leaders

What skill sets do the next generation of planning leaders need? With tight budgets, how can leadership training be creatively provided by planning agencies or through APA? This session explores innovative leadership training, mentoring and professional development strategies for planners.

April 15, 2:45 p.m. to 4 p.m.

Richard Rojas, AICP | Maria Schaper, AICP | Melissa Zornitta, AICP | Melissa Dickens, AICP
Streamlining Affordability in a Housing Crisis

Learn about creative implementation strategies for 100 percent affordable housing projects amid San Francisco’s affordable housing crisis. Explore the role of public-and-private partnerships constrained by financing deadlines, design guidelines, community backlash, and exorbitant land prices.

April 15, 2:45 p.m. to 4 p.m.

Carly Grob | Mara Blitzer | Feliciano Vera | Joyce Slen

The Future of Employment and Workplaces

This session explores the changing nature of employment and the work spaces needed to accommodate them as the U.S. economy moves toward more web-based work, home-based work, telecommuting, multi-job employment, performance-based employment, and live-work arrangements.

April 15, 2:45 p.m. to 4 p.m.

Samantha Roxas | Rae Smith, AICP | Andrew Nelson | Donald Elliott, FAICP

Third Place: Architecture, Spirit, and Community

Seek shelter from the mundane, find an escape, satisfy your social cup. The third place is under assault. Learn how you can create socially equitable spaces and places that recharge our spirit and reinforce living in an inclusive community.

This course is approved to offer 1.25 LU (AIA).

April 15, 2:45 p.m. to 4 p.m.

Joshua Aidlin | Nicolia Robinson, AICP

Zoning Hacks for Missing Middle Housing

Learn targeted and tested hacks for your zoning that will effectively remove barriers for missing middle housing types such as duplexes, fourplexes, cottage courts, and mansion apartments to provide attainable and compatible housing.

April 15, 2:45 p.m. to 4 p.m.

Joe Zehnder | Daniel Parolek

AICP Exam Prep Session

The AICP exam prep deep dive provides an overview of the AICP Certification exam for examinees.

April 15, 2:45 p.m. to 5:15 p.m.

Silvia Vargas, AICP | Devin Lavigne, AICP | Trevor Dick, AICP | John Houseal, FAICP | Eric Roach
Building Risk Communication Skills

Talking about hazards in a way that connects with people’s diverse values and concerns is hard. Get risk communication skills that help you better connect with a variety of people (including elected officials) to motivate action.

April 15, 2:45 p.m. to 5:15 p.m.
Jenna Moran  |  John Rozum, AICP  |  Susan Fox

Corridors 3.0: Smart and Sustainable Redevelopment

With automated bus rapid transit on the horizon, suburban corridors will be the next frontier for redevelopment. In this workshop, develop a new plan for a commercial corridor using sustainable design, and smart city and transportation technology. This course is approved to offer 2.5 LUs (AIA).

April 15, 2:45 p.m. to 5:15 p.m.
Scott Turner, AICP  |  Matthew Bucchin, AICP  |  Lisa Nisenson

Equity in Action

How do you put an equity lens into action as a planner? Explore the answers to this question with leaders from Chicago; Detroit; Long Beach, California; and New York. Learn how APA’s new policy guidance on equity can help.

April 15, 2:45 p.m. to 5:15 p.m.
Alejandro Sanchez-Lopez  |  Maurice Cox  |  MarySue Barrett  |  Mitchell Silver, FAICP  |  Susan Wood, AICP

Neighborhood Brews: Cheers to Mixed Use

Find out what happens when manufacturing and residential neighborhoods collide. Chat with businesses, community leaders, and city departments about how this city block of manufacturing has become an outdoor museum with roughly 17 hours of daily weekday activity.

April 15, 2:45 p.m. to 5:15 p.m.
Ticket Required
Cost: $65.00
Larry McClendon  |  Susan Ma
Monday, April 15 | 3 p.m.
National Planning Conference > Program >

Ports, Warehouses, Trucks, and Community

Tour the Port of Oakland, one of the largest ports in the United States; the 300-acre former Oakland Army Base adjacent to the port being developed with uses that complement the industrial port; and the community of West Oakland.

April 15, 3 p.m. to 6 p.m.
Ticket Required
Cost: $75.00
Patricia McGowan  |  Andrea Gardner, AICP

National Planning Conference > Program >

If You Build It They'll Come

The Mission Bay Neighborhood is where beer, balls, biotech, bandages, and babies all come together. Learn from those who are responsible for creating the new land uses and transportation networks to help 70,000 people get there on any given day.

April 15, 3 p.m. to 6:30 p.m.
Ticket Required
Cost: $25.00
Kim Walton

Monday, April 15 | 3:15 p.m.
National Planning Conference > Program >

Career Services: Professional Headshots

Dress for the job you want and smile for the camera. A professional photographer will do the rest! First come, first served.

April 15, 3:15 p.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Monday, April 15 | 4 p.m.
National Planning Conference > Program >

APA Foundation

Learn more about the APA Foundation and its impact on the planning profession by assisting disaster stricken communities, creating the first peer-vetted planning research agenda, and diversifying the profession.

April 15, 4 p.m. to 4:15 p.m.
Break
April 15, 4 p.m. to 4:15 p.m.

County Planning Division - Annual Meeting and Awards Presentation
April 15, 4 p.m. to 5:30 p.m.

All-Iowa Reception
April 15, 4 p.m. to 7 p.m.

Monday, April 15 | 4:15 p.m.
Barriers and Innovations to House Oakland
Oakland saw an estimated 3,000 housing units constructed in 2018, but homelessness and housing security remain vital concerns. Learn about the barriers to housing production and housing security in Oakland and how are stakeholders overcoming them.
April 15, 4:15 p.m. to 5:30 p.m.
Denise Pinkston  |  Gloria Bruce  |  Darin Ranelletti  |  Antwi Akom  |  Patrick Kennedy

Building Coastal Resilience Through Infrastructure Planning
The techniques and costs of incorporating adaptation and hazards planning into the infrastructure planning process are unclear. This session will provide planners with the information they need to robustly incorporate hazards and climate information into their infrastructure planning processes.
April 15, 4:15 p.m. to 5:30 p.m.
Haley Briel  |  James Schwab, FAICP  |  Bill Brown  |  Joseph DeAngelis, AICP
Building Resilience Through Strong Social Networks

What is missing from your climate resilience planning? It could be the people of your community! Learn how two very different communities leveraged equitable engagement as the cornerstone of their climate resilience planning efforts.

April 15, 4:15 p.m. to 5:30 p.m.
Wayne Feiden, FAICP

Creative Solutions to Student Housing Impacts

This session explores the challenges to student housing created as colleges' and universities' increase enrollment. Three planning directors and two national consultants explore strategies to protect surrounding neighborhoods, downtown character, and the workforce housing from student housing pressures.

April 15, 4:15 p.m. to 5:30 p.m.
Krista Hampton | Ed LeClear, AICP | Theresa Porter, AICP | F. Craig Richardson | Donald Elliott, FAICP

Did My Taxes Pay for That?!

Public art partnerships foster quality, buy-in, and funding. These partnerships help realize public art projects that enjoy broad community support. Public art administrators share how to cultivate partnership-based art projects to achieve community goals in creative, cost-effective ways.

April 15, 4:15 p.m. to 5:30 p.m.
Jackie von Treskow | Sean Scoopmire | Caitlin Cameron, AICP

GIS Workshop: 4/15 @ 4:15 PM - Bringing Geography to Design: Using Web-Based 3D to Plan and Analyze Communities

This combines analytics, sketching tools, and dashboards to help you immediately visualize designs and scenarios. You will learn how to assess data, define key indicators, and compare scenarios, while engaging the public, to make a data-driven decision, without any GIS knowledge.

April 15, 4:15 p.m. to 5:30 p.m.
Ticket Required
Cost: $50.00
Brooks Patrick
Inclusive Engagement: Innovative City Approaches

Devising inclusive and engaging planning tools can be challenging. Learn how Washington, D.C., and Chicago developed innovative tools, including a graphic novel, and learn best practices for balancing public feedback with technical rigor during plan development.

April 15, 4:15 p.m. to 5:30 p.m.
Gabrielle Lyon | Rachel Moscovich

Multi-modal Upward Mobility

This session provides case studies, tools, and performance measures for planning equitable multimodal mobility system and project investments that consider changing demographics, social justice, climate change, and economic development at the local and regional levels.

April 15, 4:15 p.m. to 5:30 p.m.
Chelsea St. Louis, AICP | Mitchell Lloyd

Plan Like No One’s Watching: The New Ave

How to revitalize aging, auto-dependent commercial corridors while mitigating displacement of local businesses and neighborhoods, with little funding? Planners are implementing flexible, risk-taking, opportunistic approaches to support ongoing revitalization in a demographically, socioeconomically diverse community in the D.C. Metro area.

April 15, 4:15 p.m. to 5:30 p.m.
Yohannes Bennehoff | Rosalind Grigsby | Erkin Ozberk, AICP | Jamee Ernst

Promoting, Planning, and Paying for Resilience

Resilience is a hot topic, but promoting, planning, and paying for resiliency measures or fully addressing the potential fiscal impacts of inaction isn’t well understood. Join a lively discussion and hear how government agencies are paying for resiliency measures.

April 15, 4:15 p.m. to 5:30 p.m.
Brian Strong | Eric Espino | Marissa Aho, AICP | Alexandra Cimmiyotti
Scenario Planning for Managing Transportation Unknowns

This session helps professionals understand and implement a responsive, dynamic, and comprehensive approach to transportation planning that can effectively address emerging transportation issues such as connected vehicles, autonomous vehicles, and transportation network companies (TNCs).

April 15, 4:15 p.m. to 5:30 p.m.
Jeremy Raw | Brett Fusco | Janae Futrell, AICP

Smart Growth: The Role of States

States can play a crucial role in the promotion and coordination of smart growth within their communities. Hear how state planning offices in California, Rhode Island, New Jersey, and Maryland take different approaches toward managing growth in their states.

April 15, 4:15 p.m. to 5:30 p.m.
Nancy Hess | Charles Boyd, AICP | Michael McCormick, AICP

The Future of Retail

Retail is an important part of many of cities' favorite places, but many cities are seeing the decline of retail in their main streets and malls. Learn how can retail compete in the age of online shopping.

April 15, 4:15 p.m. to 5:30 p.m.
Blage Zelalich | Kelly Kline | Enrique Landa | Chris Foley | Geeti Silwal, AICP

Times of Rapid Change

Panelists knowledgeable about the challenges that fast-paced, transformative, and surprising change creates for communities reveal how to take a leadership role in making planning more adaptive through good use of technology, adaptive policy, and public engagement.

April 15, 4:15 p.m. to 5:30 p.m.
Ronald Milam, AICP | Robert Lempert | Katherine Lizon | William Anderson, FAICP | Elaine Costello, FAICP

Monday, April 15 | 5 p.m.

City Planning and Management Division Business Meeting (CPMD)

April 15, 5 p.m. to 6 p.m.
LGBTQ & Planning Annual Business Meeting
April 15, 5 p.m. to 6 p.m.

Monday, April 15 | 5:30 p.m.

Career Services: Networking Tips
Need a boost of confidence or tips on how to break the ice before the Career Networking Power Hour? Touch base with a career coach from Sequence Staffing to get strategies you can use before mingling. Engage, network, and share in NPC19’s final formal employer networking event. Provided by Sequence Staffing
April 15, 5:30 p.m. to 6 p.m.

Career Services: Career Networking Power Hour
Employers and job seekers: If you missed the Employer Connection Job Fair on Saturday come back to the Career Zone for an hour of networking.
April 15, 5:30 p.m. to 6:30 p.m.

Exhibit Hall Happy Hour / Closing Event
Enjoy a drink on APA and mingle with fellow attendees and exhibitors.
April 15, 5:30 p.m. to 6:30 p.m.

President's Reception (Invitation Only)
April 15, 5:30 p.m. to 7 p.m.

University of Michigan Alumni Reception
April 15, 5:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m.
Sunset Boat Tour

Cruise past the infamous Alcatraz Island, around Angel Island National Park, under the majestic span of the Golden Gate, and along the beautiful shorelines of Tiburon & Sausalito, as the sun sets over the Pacific Ocean.

April 15, 5:30 p.m. to 8 p.m.
Ticket Required
Cost: $64.00

Food Systems Planning Interest Group and Healthy Communities Collaborative Joint Meeting/Reception

Join members and friends of APA’s Food Systems Planning interest group (FIG) and the Healthy Communities Collaborative (HCC) and for a joint reception at ThirstyBear Brewing Company (one block from the conference center: 661 Howard Street). We promise fun networking, snacks, and good people. Cash bar. $20 pre-registration for conference attendees. $20 at the door for local attendees.

April 15, 5:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m.
Ticket Required
Cost: $20.00

Hazard Mitigation and Disaster Recovery Planning Division Annual Business Meeting

The HMDR Division will be hosting a business meeting during the National Conference in New Orleans. All interested APA members are encouraged to attend and actively participate in guiding the future of this exciting Division.

April 15, 5:45 p.m. to 6:45 p.m.

Latinos and Planning Division Meeting

April 15, 6 p.m. to 7 p.m.
Transportation Planning Division Business Meeting

Annual business meeting of the Transportation Planning Division. Will include a discussion of Division priorities for the coming year, award of scholarships and other division awards, and a roundtable with members.

April 15, 6 p.m. to 7:15 p.m.

Southeast Region Chapters & Universities Reception

April 15, 6 p.m. to 7:30 p.m.

Technology, New Urbanism, Housing and Community Development, and Economic Development Division Combined Reception

April 15, 6 p.m. to 8 p.m.
Ticket Required
Cost: $0.00

UDPD Reception - APA Members

This is your opportunity to meet the people behind one of the most important and thriving Urban Design firms in the world! This event will foster casual and engaging conversations and its a great chance to grow your network. The reception will be hosted by Gehl Studio in their beautiful and innovative offices. This venue is only a short 15 minute walk from the convention center.

April 15, 6 p.m. to 8 p.m.
Ticket Required
Cost: $5.00

UDPD Reception - Nonmembers

From Park(ing) Day to Times Square to Copenhagen, Gehl has played an instrumental role in making cities for people around the world. Join Gehl’s San Francisco team for drinks and appetizers, and see what’s on the boards. The office is just a short 15-minute walk from the convention center.

April 15, 6 p.m. to 8 p.m.
Ticket Required
Cost: $10.00
UDPD Reception - Students and Emerging Professionals

From Park(ing) Day to Times Square to Copenhagen, Gehl has played an instrumental role in making cities for people around the world. Join Gehl’s San Francisco team for drinks and appetizers, and see what’s on the boards. The office is just a short 15-minute walk from the convention center.

April 15, 6 p.m. to 8 p.m.
Ticket Required
Cost: $0.00

County Planning Division and Regional Intergovernmental Planning Division Joint Reception

April 15, 6 p.m. to 9 p.m.

International Division Business Meeting

Network with other professionals interested in international planning, review plans for the coming year, and hear about opportunities to learn, connect, and engage with the International Division.

April 15, 6:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m.

Combined University Alumni Reception

This multi-school celebration is complimentary to attendees and includes a cash bar. Current schools participating include: University of Kansas, UCLA Luskin School of Public Affairs, University of Nebraska-Lincoln and CalPoly Pomona.

April 15, 6:30 p.m. to 8 p.m.

Cornell City and Regional Planning Alumni and Friends Reception

April 15, 6:30 p.m. to 8 p.m.
Illinois Reception

Please join us for University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign, University of Illinois at Chicago and the Illinois Chapter, American Planning Association.
April 15, 6:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m.

Monday, April 15 | 6:45 p.m.

LGBTQ and Planning Division Reception

Drinks and hors d’oeuvres, plus entertainment by Seth Eisen. Tickets are $10 for members and students / $25 for non-members
April 15, 6:45 p.m. to 9 p.m.

Monday, April 15 | 7 p.m.

FAICP Reception

Fellows are encouraged to attend the 2019 (a non-induction year) FAICP Reception, which will be hosted by Perkins+Will in their beautiful offices overlooking the San Francisco Bay. The event will serve wine, beer and hors d’oeuvres
April 15, 7 p.m. to 8 p.m.
Ticket Required
Cost: $45.00

Monday, April 15 | 7:15 p.m.

Hazard Mitigation and Disaster Recovery Planning Division Member Reception

Purchase a ticket (maximum of two per member) to join us at PETE’S TAVERN for a cocktail reception and dinner. Pete’s Tavern is about a 20-minute walk from the Moscone Center located at 128 King Street.
April 15, 7:15 p.m. to 9 p.m.
Ticket Required
Cost: $15.00
Monday, April 15 | 7:30 p.m.

Transportation Planning Division Networking Reception

Join the Transportation Planning Division as we celebrate and network in San Francisco! The Southside Spirit House is a short walk up Howard Street (0.6 miles) after the annual business meeting. Members attending the annual business meeting will receive wristbands first. Free to Transportation Planning Division member. $10 cover for non-members. Join TPD to waive the cover!

April 15, 7:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m.

Monday, April 15 | 9 p.m.

Big City Planning Directors Dinner - Invitation Only

April 15, 7:30 p.m. to 10 p.m.

Tuesday, April 16

Tuesday, April 16 | 7:30 a.m.

Speaker Ready Room

April 16, 7:30 a.m. to 10:30 a.m.

Shoreline Protection Program at SFO

Learn how San Francisco International Airport will rebuild its 8-mile shoreline protection system to protect its 2 million-square-foot terminals and 1.2 million-square-foot cargo and ground service facilities — serving 58 million annual passengers — from sea level rise.

April 16, 7:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

Ticket Required

Cost: $65.00

Nixon Lam
Planning for Commercial Recreation

Visit the new Bay Area curling facility to learn how sports in cities are more than big-league stadiums. Finding suitable spaces for commercial recreational use can be difficult. Hear how organizations and municipalities have worked to create these spaces.

April 16, 8 a.m. to 11:30 a.m.
Ticket Required
Cost: $65.00
Matthew Gamboa

Cannabis Road Trip

You've heard of joints, THC, and dispensaries. But what do you know about dabbing, CBD, and microbusinesses? Join us to learn everything you wanted to know about the cannabis industry in California.

April 16, 8 a.m. to 1 p.m.
Ticket Required
Cost: $76.00
greg minor | Miroo Desai, AICP | Elizabeth Greene, AICP

Guided NZE Training Center Tour

Tour of the IBEW-NECA Net Zero Training Center to see and learn how the skills required to build smart cities are developed and how planners can advance clean energy initiatives in their communities.

April 16, 8:15 a.m. to 12:15 p.m.
Ticket Required
Cost: $69.00
Alex Lantsberg, AICP
Downtown San Jose Transit and Development

Major investments in high-speed and regional rail, massive tech development and high-rise residential and commercial projects are transforming downtown San Jose, California. Ride the commuter train to San Jose, learn about the station planning effort, and see recent development projects.

April 16, 8:15 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.
Ticket Required
Cost: $70.00
Timothy Rood, AICP

Tuesday, April 16 | 8:30 a.m.

After Resilience Competitions: Lessons from RBD

Panelists compare and contrast the results of two large-scale resilience competitions: Rebuild By Design (NY, 2014-15) and Resilient By Design (San Francisco, 2017-18). Examine the transition of climate-responsive plans from competition brief to design into real-world impact and implementatio. This course is approved to offer 1.25 LUs (AIA).

April 16, 8:30 a.m. to 9:45 a.m.
Carrie Grassi | Jeremy Siegel | Matthijs Bouw | Sherwood Sarte | John Rahaim

Design for Development

Design for development (D4D) documents are an increasingly common tool in the regulation of development, yet they are often either too vague or too prescriptive. This session details how effective D4Ds can shape development that advances community goals and aspirations. This course is approved to offer 1.25 PDH|HSW (ASLA).

April 16, 8:30 a.m. to 9:45 a.m.
Tina Chang, AICP | Laura Shifley, AICP

Empowering Youth Voices Through Art/Design

Today's youth are the leaders of tomorrow's communities. Creative youth engagement strategies are key to inclusive planning. This session explores innovative approaches using art, media, and design to unlock creativity in young people to solve complex community issues. This course is approved to offer 1.25 PDH|HSW (ASLA).

April 16, 8:30 a.m. to 9:45 a.m.
Steve Lang | Patricia Algara | Deborah Mckoy | Judith Franco
From Industry to Innovation Economy

After a long decline, urban industrial areas are becoming thriving hubs for innovative jobs and new models of production. Learn how New York, Boston, and San Francisco are rethinking roles of industrial neighborhoods and developing innovative tools to support job growth.

April 16, 8:30 a.m. to 9:45 a.m.
Jeremy Shaw | Andrew Grace | Sulin Carling

Growing Up: Vertical Communities and Children

How can intensifying cities be friendly places for children? A city's vitality relies on its ability to support all generations. Experts discuss design for children through a presentation of Growing Up – Planning for Children in New Vertical Communities urban design guidelines. This course is approved to offer 1.25 LUs (AIA).

April 16, 8:30 a.m. to 9:45 a.m.
Gregg Lintern | Annely Zonena

Innovations in TDR Programs

Learn how three California communities have implemented innovative Transfer of Development Rights (TDR) programs. This session will showcase how TDR is being used to support community planning objectives related to historic preservation, environmental protection, and school financing. This course is approved to offer 1.25 PDH (ASLA).

April 16, 8:30 a.m. to 9:45 a.m.
Carly Panos | Jennifer Self | Timothy Frye

Jump-starting Transportation Corridor Planning

Comprehensive, performance-based corridor plans are helping secure funding for transportation improvements across the country. See some national examples of how corridor plans are helping achieve planning goals, and find resources that can help your area jump-start corridor planning.

April 16, 8:30 a.m. to 9:45 a.m.
Gary Hamrick | Laura Pennebaker | Janet Dignazio | Jeff Harris
Mixing in Place

Americans have grown apart from one another, and it's hurting us. This session explores strategies for creating socioeconomically diverse public spaces and demonstrates how these strategies uplift the very places that serve our most disadvantaged residents.

April 16, 8:30 a.m. to 9:45 a.m.
Gia Biagi | Benjamin Bryant, AICP

Pedestrian and Bicycle Safety: It's Personal

Most of us know someone who has been injured or killed while biking or walking. This session dissects the causes behind the statistics and concludes with on-the-ground solutions to address the increasingly personal issue of bicycle and pedestrian safety.

April 16, 8:30 a.m. to 9:45 a.m.
Peter Fritz, AICP | Alison Redenz

Planning for Transit in Cochabamba, Bolivia

In October 2018, an international team of planning professionals established a planning model for station-area transit-oriented development for Cochabamba, Bolivia. Rapidly urbanizing, Cochabamba currently lacks the transit-oriented infrastructure to support many of the proposed stations in the network.

April 16, 8:30 a.m. to 9:45 a.m.
Joseph Muldrow, FAICP | Robert Barber, FAICP | Irayda Ruiz Bode, AICP | Javier Reynaldo Delgadillo Andrade | Carol Rhea, FAICP

Recovery After Great Disasters

Using examples from their personal experience after major disasters in the United States, Japan, India, and several other countries, panelists share lessons to help planners better organize and implement recovery after future large disasters.

April 16, 8:30 a.m. to 9:45 a.m.
Laurie Johnson, FAICP | Kanako Iuchi | Balakrishnan Balachandran | Robert Olshansky, FAICP
Tackling Equity: Crafting Communities of Opportunity

Recent studies confirm growing economic disparity in the country. Planners can play a pivotal role in improving opportunities for disadvantaged populations by focusing on equity and managing processes that are bold, honest and committed to incremental change.

April 16, 8:30 a.m. to 9:45 a.m.
Kyle May, AICP | Kevin Hively | Erin Barger

The Dating Game: Selecting a Consultant

Modeled after "The Dating Game", the city and consultants, ask questions and then choose their “date” (or consultant). Learn what is necessary in an RFP, get tips on evaluating the submissions and interviews, Understand the planner’s ethical responsibilities.

April 16, 8:30 a.m. to 9:45 a.m.
Christopher Shires, AICP | Christopher Janson, AICP | Naomi Hamlett, AICP | Amy Haase, AICP | Jeffrey Ray, AICP

Transformation of Cincinnati's Uptown Innovation Corridor

Discover how a nonprofit community development corporation is creating an innovation agenda and working collaboratively with a major university, multiple health care institutions, and a cultural organization to effect transformational and complementary city and neighborhood redevelopment in Cincinnati's Uptown Corridor.

April 16, 8:30 a.m. to 9:45 a.m.
Beth Robinson, CEcD | Stephen Gray | Mary Beth Mcgrew

Transforming Government Through Entrepreneurship/Start-Ups

The Start-Up In Residence program connects government agencies with start-ups to develop technology products that address civic challenges. Hear about recent successful partnerships from this program, and Learn how your city can participate for free!

April 16, 8:30 a.m. to 9:45 a.m.
Krista Canellakis | Eyal Feder-Levy | Tom Landers | Kay Cheng
Unconventional Tools to Combat Gentrification

Changing preferences, hyperdrive economic growth, and shrinking affordable supply have resulted in growing pains for cities. Planners in Asbury Park, New Jersey, and Philadelphia are employing unconventional anti-gentrification tools: grass-roots capacity-building, high-tech approaches in community cohesion, and unprecedented transparency.

April 16, 8:30 a.m. to 9:45 a.m.
Karen Chapple | Tessa Cruz | Anne Fadullon | Antwi Akom | Woo Kim, AICP

Who Does It Better?

Play the game “Who does it better?” at this interactive session. Encounter ethical scenarios including conflicts of interest, new technology, claiming credit, and public/private/nonprofit work. Learn what other professional codes advise. How does AICP fare? You decide.

April 16, 8:30 a.m. to 10 a.m.
Steven Preston, FAICP | Mary Kay Peck, FAICP | Bonnie Johnson, AICP

APA/AICP Annual Meeting

Each year the APA/AICP Annual Meeting is held during the National Planning Conference. This provides an opportunity for members to hear about the state of planning and on the state of the Association. The Annual Meeting also includes an opportunity for questions and answers with members. There is no award component to the meeting this year. The leadership awards are being celebrated at select ev

April 16, 9 a.m. to 9:30 a.m.

Parks and Community Development in SF

Learn about the role parks play in community development in low-income neighborhoods in San Francisco. Visit different parks and hear from community groups that have partnered to renovate, program, and activate these spaces.

April 16, 9:30 a.m. to 1 p.m.
Ticket Required
Cost: $37.00
Alejandra Chiesa | Philip Vitale
Tuesday, April 16 | 9:45 a.m.

Networking Break

April 16, 9:45 a.m. to 10:30 a.m.

Tuesday, April 16 | 10 a.m.

Innovative Trends in Children's Playgrounds

Join us on a tour around San Francisco to explore the best of the best new children's playground designs around the city. Learn about trends in nature play, risk play, multisensory play, universal design, and more.

April 16, 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Ticket Required

Cost: $68.00

Janice Perez, AICP

Tuesday, April 16 | 10:15 a.m.

Build Consensus Using Interactive Web-based GIS

Find out how online GIS tools can help improve collaboration and build consensus. The session explores emerging interactive GIS technologies land-use planners can use in projects today. Bring your Wi-Fi laptop and follow along!

April 16, 10:15 a.m. to 11:30 a.m.

Brooks Patrick  |  Devin Lavigne, AICP  |  Robert Kain

Tuesday, April 16 | 10:15 a.m.

Collective Impact for Resilient Cities

Planners are responsible for ensuring every action we take in our cities has a collective impact across many resilience goals. This session looks at how systems thinking can improve resilience planning in cities such as New Orleans, Houston, and San Francisco.

April 16, 10:15 a.m. to 11:30 a.m.

Amy Morris  |  Colleen McHugh  |  Amanda Brown-Stevens  |  Kathleen Coyne, AICP
Ethics for Small Town Planning

Explore the small-town or rural area planner's role and get realistic tips on addressing ethical issues resulting from the planner's unique relationship with the applicant and public where everyone knows everyone else's business.

April 16, 10:15 a.m. to 11:30 a.m.
Graham Billingsley, FAICP | Joanne Garnett, FAICP | Jessica Garrow, AICP | Robert Barber, FAICP

Getting a Return on Creative Placemaking

Creative placemaking develops community identity and improves quality of life. But how can small cities with limited resources justify investments in placemaking? This session focuses on how creativity, partnerships, and thoughtful investments can ensure placemaking has a return on investment.

April 16, 10:15 a.m. to 11:30 a.m.
John Collier | Aaron Perri | Liz Hayden

Integrating Emerging Mobility into Multi-Modal Systems

Instead of reacting to transportation’s newest trends, how can public and private sectors proactively partner together to plan integrated emerging mobility into communities? Attend a mock meeting between public agency, technology provider, and private consultant to learn more.

April 16, 10:15 a.m. to 11:30 a.m.
Kyle Boehm | Rachel Hiatt | John Kopp, AICP CTP

Lessons from Water and Planning CONNECT

Learn about the highlights of APA’s Water and Planning Connect conference (2018), a first-of-its-kind interdisciplinary gathering of planning professionals, water utility experts, and water professionals brought together to explore the connections between land use and water management.

April 16, 10:15 a.m. to 11:30 a.m.
Mary Ann Dickinson | Chi Ho Sham | William Cesanek, AICP
Managed Retreat?

Managed retreat is an adaptive response to sea level rise that is also controversial, especially in areas of high asset density. The panelists share their experiences. This course is approved to offer 1.25 PDH|HSW (ASLA).

April 16, 10:15 a.m. to 11:30 a.m.

Jack Liebster | Dwight Worden | Chris Kern

Mobility Placemaking: Implementing Urban Mobility Trails

Urban trails and linear parks are a multifaceted approach to address mobility options as well as placemaking. Learn how Tampa’s Lee Roy Selmon Greenway and Tampa Riverwalk have realized these goals and contributed to an urban renaissance. This course is approved to offer 1.25 PDH (ASLA).

April 16, 10:15 a.m. to 11:30 a.m.

Wendy Tao | David Larsen, RLA | Jeffrey Diemer, AICP | Anna Quinones

Preservation of Historic Signs

What are the best practices to preserve historic signs? This session explores regulatory and policy approaches that preserve historic signs in San Francisco and Southern California.

April 16, 10:15 a.m. to 11:30 a.m.

Lannette Schwartz | Al Barna | Randall Ann Homan

Public Finance and Fiscal Sustainability

This session offers planners an introduction to public finance principles, providing an understanding of a broad range of public finance instruments and an overview of how they are implemented.

April 16, 10:15 a.m. to 11:30 a.m.

Armando Carbonell, FAICP | George McCarthy | Michael Belsky

Solving Traffic: Wrong Problem, Wrong Results

Consider the opportunity costs associated with attempts to solve for traffic impacts of development proposals. This panel discussion critically reviews why efforts to resolve traditional traffic impacts are counter-productive. Alternatives are available and better suited for almost anyplace.

April 16, 10:15 a.m. to 11:30 a.m.

Jeffrey Tumlin | Ted Knowlton, AICP | Cailean Kok, AICP | Andre Wozniak, AICP | Laura Minns, AICP
The Golden Circle of Online Engagement

A why/how/what approach to online engagement; explore concepts related to tool selection followed by specific case studies as we explore ten commandments related to implementation success.

April 16, 10:15 a.m. to 11:30 a.m.
Amanda Nagl | Sandrine Thibault, AICP

Toward Health Equity: Inclusive, Healthy Places

For too long, placemaking has concentrated on bounded places; time’s up. This session focuses on the interconnections that make up the context, process, design, and sustainability of public spaces.

April 16, 10:15 a.m. to 11:30 a.m.
Sharon Roerty, AICP | Hanaa Hamdi | Risa Wilkerson | Jennifer Gardner

Transitions: Anticipating and Governing Disruptive Change

With numerous lines of disruption, planners need new approaches for managing change and transitions. This session tackles change management through several lenses: using data and smart city strategies, managing transportation and placemaking, and harnessing scenario and performance-based planning techniques.

April 16, 10:15 a.m. to 11:30 a.m.
Adriane Jaynes | Lisa Nisenson | Bradley Davis

Treasure Island: A Forward-looking Community

The redevelopment of Treasure Island is an opportunity to create a 21st century neighborhood based on principles of sustainability, community diversity, and social vibrancy. Learn about its innovations in urban design, landscape-based water management, and native and wildlife habitat creation.This course is approved to offer 1.25 PDH|HSW (ASL

April 16, 10:15 a.m. to 11:30 a.m.
Leo Chow | Christopher Meany | Kevin Conger
Where to Place Affordable Housing Developments?

Concentrated affordable housing developments in communities of color can have a negative impact on achieving diverse and mixed-income communities. Hear about case studies that highlight over-concentration of affordable housing and the economic impact it can create on the community.

April 16, 10:15 a.m. to 11:30 a.m.
Angela Brooks  |  Derek Hull  |  Andrew Baker, AICP

Wildland-Urban Interface

The wildland-urban interface (WUI) has grown rapidly over the last several decades. This session addresses what planners need to know about the WUI, including what it is and the tools planners can use to address WUI challenges. This course is approved to offer 1.25 PDH|HSW (ASLA)

April 16, 10:15 a.m. to 11:30 a.m.
Anna Read, AICP  |  Steve King  |  Molly Mowery, AICP  |  Ann Dillemuth, AICP  |  Miranda Mockrin

Tuesday, April 16 | 11:30 a.m.

Networking Break

April 16, 11:30 a.m. to noon

Tuesday, April 16 | noon

Closing Keynote

Join your colleagues for the NPC19 closing session, featuring filmmaker and Rising Heroes Project founder, Brett Culp.

April 16, noon to 1 p.m.
Brett Culp

GPN Lunch (Invitation Only)

April 16, noon to 2:15 p.m.
2019 Federal Planning Division Workshop

The Federal Planning Division will hold its annual training workshop in San Francisco at the Hilton San Francisco Union Square from April 16-18, 2019 immediately following the National Planning Conference. Building on the NPC theme, our workshop theme this year is Planning Connects Us to a Resilient Future. Session topics will address resilience; technology and innovation; energy, water, and trans

April 16, 1 p.m. to 7 p.m.
Ticket Required
Cost: $300.00

Thursday, April 18

2019 Federal Planning Division Awards Luncheon

The Federal Planning Division will hold its annual training workshop in San Francisco at the Hilton San Francisco Union Square from April 16-18, 2019 immediately following the National Planning Conference. Building on the NPC theme, our workshop theme this year is Planning Connects Us to a Resilient Future. Session topics will address resilience; technology and innovation; energy, water, and trans

April 18, noon to 1:30 p.m.
Ticket Required
Cost: $50.00
NPC19 Conference at a Glance

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Saturday, April 13</th>
<th>Sunday, April 14</th>
<th>Monday, April 15</th>
<th>Tuesday, April 16</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>6:00 a.m.</td>
<td>Fitness Activity: Yoga</td>
<td>Fitness Activity: 5K Run and Walk</td>
<td>NPC 19 Registration/Open</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>7:00 a.m.</td>
<td>Opening Keynote</td>
<td>Mobile Workshops</td>
<td>Mobile Workshops</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>8:00 a.m.</td>
<td>Exhibit Hall Open</td>
<td>Educational Sessions</td>
<td>Educational Sessions</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>9:00 a.m.</td>
<td>Educational Sessions</td>
<td>Exhibit Hall Open (9:45)</td>
<td>Exhibit Hall Open (9:45)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>10:00 a.m.</td>
<td>NPC 19 Registration/Open</td>
<td>Mobile Workshops</td>
<td>Mobile Workshops</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>11:00 a.m.</td>
<td>Mobile Workshops</td>
<td>Educational Sessions</td>
<td>Educational Sessions</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>12:00 p.m.</td>
<td>Welcome Reception at Moscone West</td>
<td>Networking Receptions and Evening Social Events</td>
<td>Networking Receptions and Evening Social Events</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1:00 p.m.</td>
<td>Exhibit Hall Happy Hour</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2:00 p.m.</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3:00 p.m.</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4:00 p.m.</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5:00 p.m.</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>6:00 p.m.</td>
<td>Welcome Reception at Moscone West</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>7:00 p.m.</td>
<td>Networking Receptions and Evening Social Events</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>8:00 p.m.</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>9:00 p.m.</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>10:00 p.m.</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>11:00 p.m.</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

APA leadership, division, and other allied meetings are scheduled throughout the conference; please check the online program for specific times.